

LUCK STRUCK THE TRAVELER AFTER ALL

WORDS AND MUSIC

BY

M. Robert Skinner

1st Stanza

With Old Glory I have roved across the seas;
At Manilla we unfurled her to the breeze;
Then we toted Her to Mexico and manned the guns,
Down where the Rio-Grande runs.
Then Old Glory said to Her brave boys
Follow me and lick the Kaisers beastly huns
And we sailed with Her to Bonny France to back Black Jack
Down where the Old Rhine River runs.

Chorus:

Luck struck the traveler after all
Luck struck the traveler after all
For while we performed our duties
We could tango with the cooties:
Luck struck the traveler after all.
