tho'ts went back o'er the wear - y months since you called me your own. Since you Think - ing of their loved ones who left them to fight and die for lib - er - ty.

pressed me to your heart and said you would be true to me When Time seems long when your own are far a - way, So when your heart is we were far a - part, And as I was dream - ing there heav - y you would kneel down and pray, And while you were pray - ing there came a sound, a sound so sweet to hear. Oh, it came a sound, a sound so sweet to hear. Oh, it was those beau-ti-ful vic-to-ry bells, say-ing you would soon be near.

 was those beau-ti-ful vic-to-ry bells, say-ing he would soon be near.

CHORUS

Marcia

Oh, ring on, oh, ring on, ring on vic-t'ry bells. How sweet they did sound, oh, how sweet they did sound to me When they pealed forth that beau-ti-ful mes-sage That was sent from far a-cross the sea. sea. A
