©JE406879 JUL 12 1917

THE BEST FLAG THAT EVER FLEW

INTRODUCED BY ROMA STANLEY

WORDS AND MUSIC BY
J. L. SMITH

PUBLISHED BY J.L.Smith
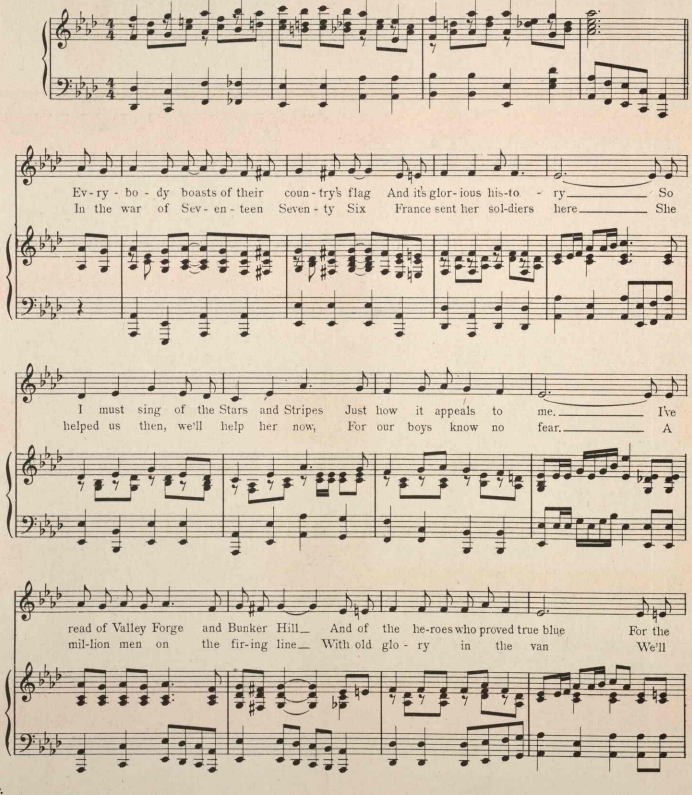
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

M1646
.S

Dedicated to our Army and Navy

The Best Flag That Ever Flew

Words & Music by
J. L. SMITH
Writer of "The Boys Of '61 Were Soldiers Too"
"If I Were Only Home Tonight," etc.



All rights reserved

Copyright MCMXVII by J. L. Smith.

International copyright secured sons and daugh - ters of lib - er - ty She's the best flag that ev - er flew.

clear her soil of German foes For we're with her to a man.
CHORUS
On the battle ground of Lexington The blood drenched fields of the south Old Glo - ry proud - ly swept her path With shot and shell from the cannon's mouth She won in the war with Mex - i - co, We know what Dewey did at Man-il - la Bay, And we'll win this war with German-y, We're bet-ter a - ble to fight to - day. Oh day.

411779