My

~~THE~~ FLAG IN FLANDER'S LAND

Away, away, far o'er the main,
There floats my flag on Flander's plain -
A flag that never knew a stain,
Whose people never wore a chain.

Chorus.

My banner floats for all mankind,
And rends the galling ties that bind,
The weeping slave and fettered mind,
And light of freedom gives the blind.

It makes the tyrant bend the knee,
It makes oppression turn and flee;
And so I sing my song to thee,
God-given badge of liberty.

Chorus---

Why is my flag in Flander's land ?
Why borne aloft by fearless band
Of marching hosts at its command ?
Who freemen fall or freemen stand.

Chorus---

Old Glory speaks :"In years agone,
I kissed with Freedom at her dawn,
A vow to ne'er on tyrants fawn,
And shout her slogan,-On and On."

Chorus---
