Voice.

We are somewhere in France in the world's big war, We are fighting for world lib-er-ty,
We are thinking each day of our friends back home, They are praying for our vic-to-ry,

We're dodg-ing bul-lets that's sent by the Huns, But shells are flying right back at the Ger-man guns, We're
You see we're fight-ing for old Un-cle Sam, To stop the carnage of in-no-cents is our plan, We're sending them ov-er to find Kais-er Bill, Find old Kaiser Bill they surely will, Tho' we are shoulder to shoulder, our Ar-my is strong, Take a tip from me, it won't take long, For we are cresc.

in the fight to stay, We'll be hap-py on the day, When we win the war and sail home to our friends.
forcing thro' the fray Just to hur-ry on the day, When we win the war and sail home to our friends.

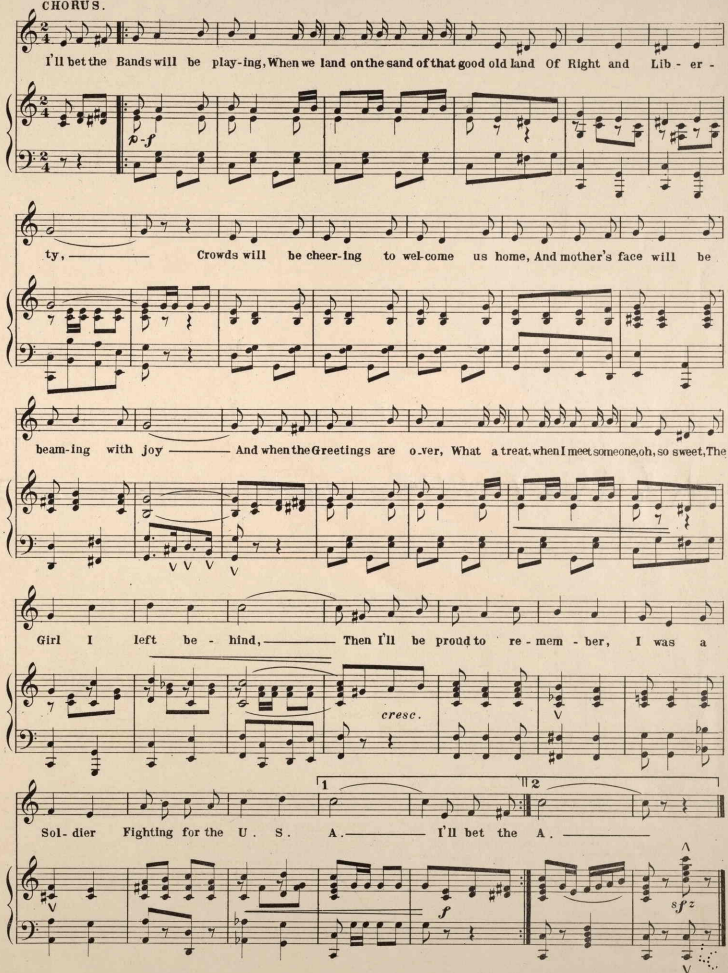
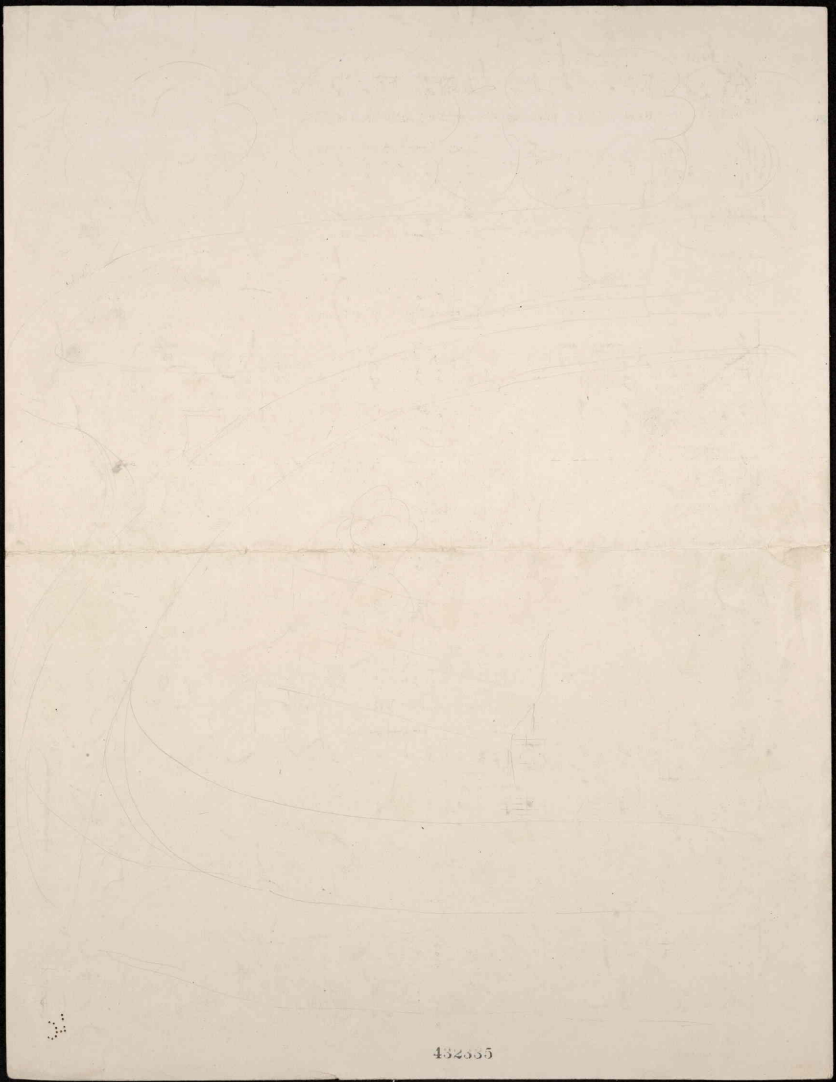
CHORUS.





I'll bet the Bands will be play-ing, When we land on the sand of that good old land Of Right and Lib-er-p-f ty, Crowds will be cheer-ing to wel-come us home, And mother's face will be beam-ing with joy And when the Greetings are o-ver, What a treat when I meet someone, oh, so sweet, The Girl I left be-hind, Then I'll be proud to re-mem-ber, I was a cresc.
Sol-dier Fighting for the U. S. A. I'll bet the A.
