sent-i-ments loy-al and true. For eight fleet-ing years you have leave it kind friend to you we have fail-ed oft to wear the prout-ly thro-out all the land time - cepts they teach ne-ver by Grant, and good for-tune to bring. So brace we must part let us shelt-ered us here Ov-en free-ly to us of your lore, But earch on a mak' We can pair-ly well keep our fdates too But the un-worth-y shelf, Or by un-skem-ly act be de-fited While de buy "aw-re-voir," Lest good-bye — should make it too strong Our re mou time is call-ing so journ-ey we must Yet we ling-er a while at your thing that is grief-ing us now a not that; On-ly leav-ing old Grant makes us vo-tion we boast, and true dig-nit-y Doth, May our deeds as our words thus be spect, our es-teem, and our love, all are yours, May we bid you fare-well with our door
blue styled song
For it is dear old Grant, You're the ver-y best school of all. And tho' oft we've been told in a voice stern and cold, To "stop talk-ing out the in the hall"; Still it is dear old Grant And—while we may from you stray — We nev-er shall fact for a wish to come back to you, hearts will be true al-way — Yes it is hearts will be true al-sfz.
