©DE431303

The Boys of the U. S. A.

WORDS BY FRONA OWENS HALL

MUSIC BY LYDIA OWENS STREETER

M1646 .3

Popular Edition

NATIONAL MUSIC CO.

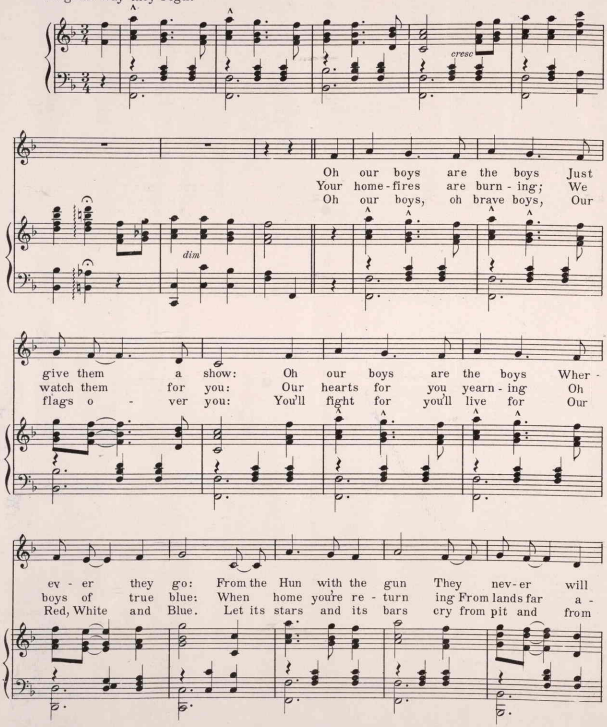
339 S. Wabash Ave. • Chicago, Ill. •

The Boys of the U.S.A.

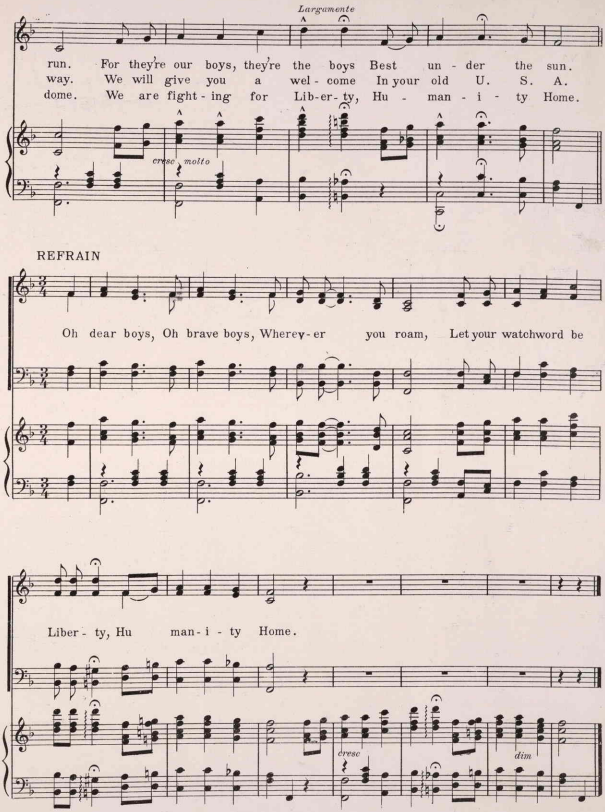
Words by
FRONA OWENS HALL

Music by
LYDIA OWENS STREETER

Sing the way they Fight



Copyright MCMXVIII by Lydia Owens Streeter



Largamente
run. For they're our boys, they're the boys Best un - der the sun.
way. We will give you a wel - come In your old U. S. A.
dome. We are fight - ing for Lib-er-ty, Hu - man - i - ty Home.
cresc molto
REFRAIN
Oh dear boys, Oh brave boys, Wherev-er you roam, Let your watchword be Liber - ty, Hu man - i - ty Home.
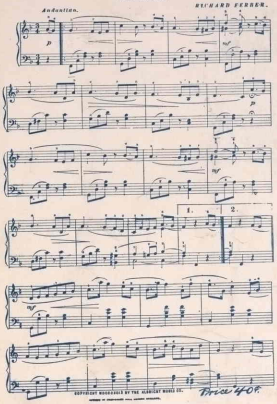
cresc
dim

PIECES YOU WILL LIKE

THE SHEPHERD'S DREAM.
REVERIE.

Andantino. RICHARD FERBER.

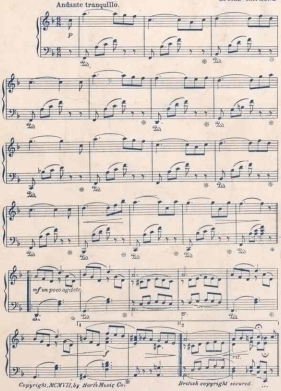


COPYRIGHT MCMXVIII BY THE HARMONY MUSIC CO.

Price 40¢

APPLE BLOSSOMS
Reverie.

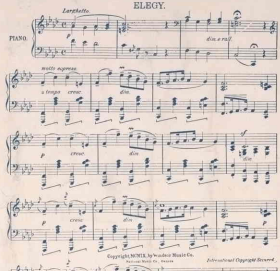
Andante tranquillo. LUCILE RAYMOND



Copyright, MCMVII, by Hoth Music Co.® Britain copyright secured.

BROKEN PROMISES.
ELEGY.

Larghetto.



Copyright, MCMII, by Woodlawn Music Co. International Copyright Secured.

AS ITS NAME implies, this composition portrays some of the feelings of the human souls. The 1st theme, F Minor, is sad and plaintive, breath-ing out the very essence of a yearning heart for Promises that were Broken.

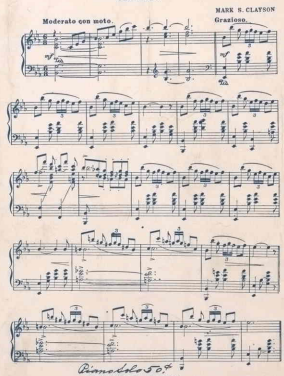
The second theme, A Flat Major, is more animated, and depicts the vagrant emotions that arise after the heart has subsided-self of its bitterness, passion, excitement, acidity for the future,—all are drawn in this theme, and it works up almost to a climax, but the bitterness will not depart, and the first theme re-asserts itself in all its sad wailings.

The third theme, D Flat Major, is one of resignation; the heart tries to become reconciled, and speaks in feelings now in a quiet, sweet melody, but this does not last long,—those Broken Promises, those vows of love can never be forgotten, and again the 1st theme reappears for the last time,—leaving the heart sad with its grief.

A PEACEFUL NIGHT.
(BERCEUSE.)

MARK S. CLAYSON

Moderato con moto. Grazioso.



COPYRIGHT MCMXIII BY THE HARMONY MUSIC CO
ENTERED AT STATIONER'S HALL LONDON ENG.

OUR PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A COPY
Order Several Copies and Ask for Our Complete Catalog - It's Free
NATIONAL MUSIC CO., CHICAGO