

JUL 21 1919

OH WHY DID MY DADDY LEAVE ME

By NELLIE STUMBO

Published by DELMAR MUSIC CO.
CHICAGO

M1646

.5

Oh Why Did My Daddy Leave Me

NELLIE STUMBO

Slowly

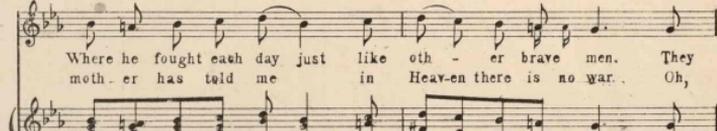

Tenderly

The an-gels called my dad-dy, they found him on No Man's Land.
I want to go to dad-dy, and to that land a-far For

Where he fought eash day just like oth-er brave men. They moth-er has told me in Heav-en there is no war. Oh, laid him to rest in yon-der fields, Where pop-pies bloom so fair, And may the day be hast-ened so I may go some day

moth - er and I will go some day to meet my dad - dy there.
 To that land a - far and hear the an - gels play.

CHORUS: Plaintively

Oh, why did dad - dy leave me and moth - er all a - lone? With p

no one to greet us in our home, sweet home. But some day we will meet him in that land a - far, For rit.

moth - er has told me in Heav - en there is no war.

rit.

