

AUG 21 1918

©CL5429739

FLAG OF THE FREE

(THE NEW NATIONAL ANTHEM)

Words by
C. S. McLAURY

Music by
A. W. SUTHERLAND

PUBLISHED BY
LOS ANGELES MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
Superba Theatre Building, Los Angeles, Cal.

H1646
.S

4

Flag of The Free.

(The New National Anthem.)

Words by
C. S. McLAURY.

Music by
A. W. SUTHERLAND.

Tempo di Marcia.

Old Wave
Oh

Con Spirito.

Glo - ry's stripes wave o'er the sea — Her stars shine bright the world to free — No on and on oh stripes so true — Shine on and on bright stars in blue — Let star - ry flag, God bless thy name — And keep thee from all harm and shame — Let hate or mal - ice does she bear — But to the na - tions in des - pair — A ev - 'ry voice and heart and hand — Pro - claim the words with thee we stand — With ev - 'ry land both near and far — Learn of the free - dom in each star — And rain-bow's prom - ise bright and true — She throws high in the heav - ens blue — In thee we'll march to bu - gle's call — Nor falt - er till all trait - ors fall — On gath - er 'neath thy silk - en folds — All sa - cred things the world still holds — As dark - est gloom be - fore the day — Her stars shine on to light the way —

 ev - 'ry breeze thy folds re - lease — To all shall go sweet words of peace — day breaks o'er the land and sea — So may our flag float o'er the free —

REFRAIN.

Flag of the free, Flag of the free, Firm is our hope and faith in thee.

Thy stars that shine high in the blue, Shall keep the sa - cred prom - ise true.

Flag of the Free.

