©CLE523353
NOV 25 1921

Poem by R. Wightman

"Rest Ye in Peace, Ye Flanders Dead."

(America's Answer)

Music by Alec Tennant

Cantante

Rest ye in peace, ye

Adagio

mf p p con tenerezza

Flan - ders dead! The fight that ye so brave - ly led We've tak - en up! We've

cresc tak - en up. And we will keep true faith with you who lie a - sleep, Who poco rit. colla voce p lie a - sleep. With each a cross to mark his bed, And pop - pies blow - ing pp cresc

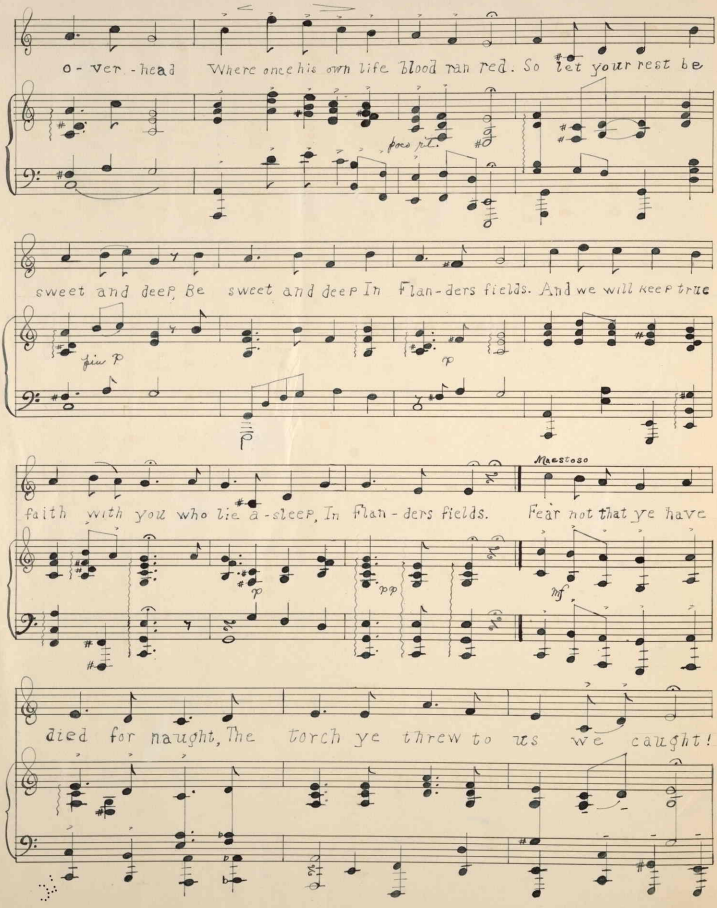
M1646



o - ver - head Where once his own life blood ran red. So let your rest be dims rit.
sweet and deep Be sweet and deep In Flan-ders fields. And we will keep true faith with you who lie a-sleep, In Flan-ders fields. Fear not that ye have Maestoso
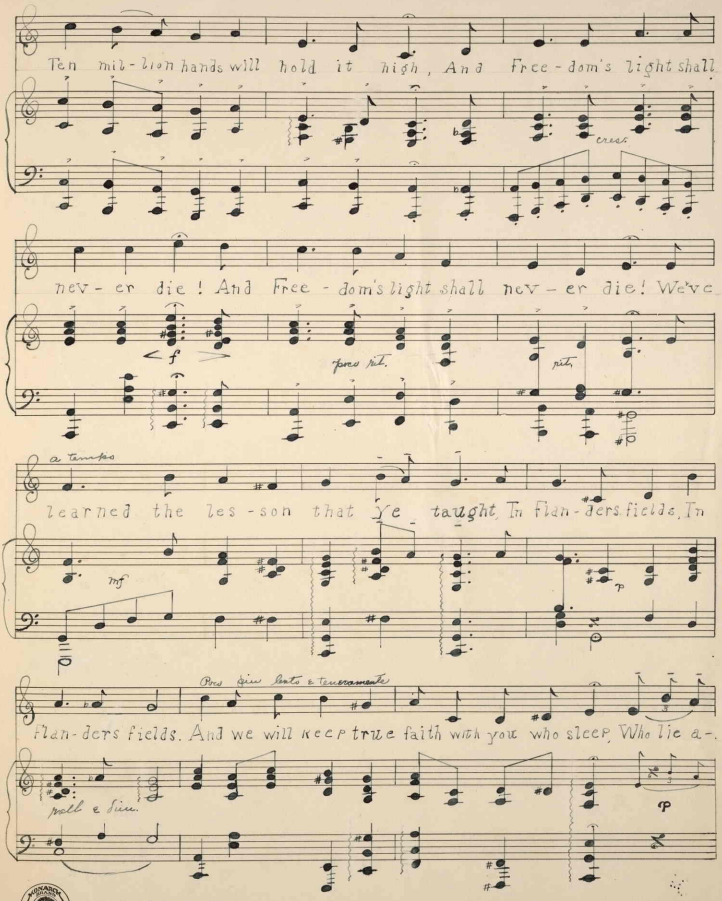
died for naught, The torch ye threw to us we caught!



Ten mil-lion hands will hold it high, And Free-dom's light shall
cresc.
nev-er die! And Free-dom's light shall nev-er die! We've f poco rit.
rit.
a tempo
learned the les-son that ye taught In Flan-ders fields, In mf
p Poco più lento e Teneramente Flan-ders fields. And we will keep true faith with you who sleep Who lie a-molto e Sim.
p

sleep. Who lie a - sleep In Flan-ders fields.
Gro a few diminuendo