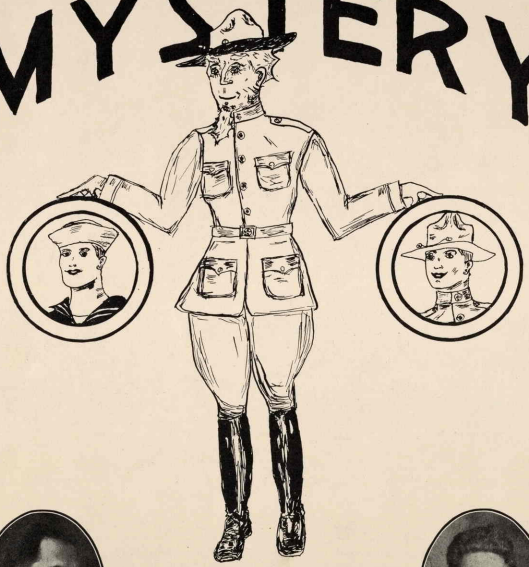
DEC 28 1917

©CLE416528

THE MAN OF MYSTERY



Words by

FRANK THACKER

Company C, 129th United States Infantry

Music by

JULIAN THACKER

Published by Julian Thacker, Ottawa, Ill., December 1917 Price 15 cents

M1646
.T

The Man of Mystery

BY FRANK AND JULIAN THACKER

Not too fast

Copyright, 1917, by Julian Thacker stuff, or they'd might-y quick-ly learn his his - to - ry.

name, just sit stead-y in the boat, he'll stear you clear.
For he's known in ev - ry state, and his work is wide and He's the brains of U. S. A., and no mat - ter what they great; For he is known to bos- om ev - 'ry clan.
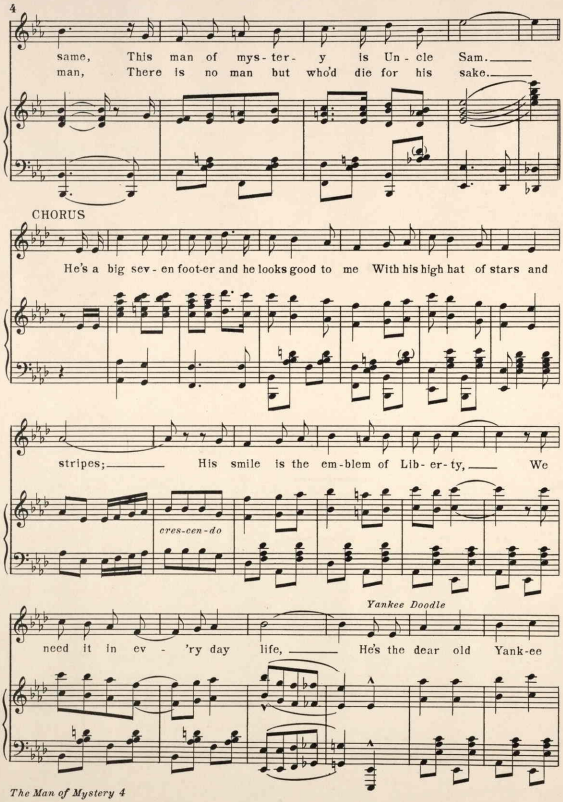
say; We'll back him up in an - y move he makes.
From the Brit - ish to the Dane He treats all of them the
And for good old Un- cle Sam This might - y, might - y



4
same, This man of mys - ter - y is Un - cle Sam.
man, There is no man but who'd die for his sake.
CHORUS
He's a big sev - en foot-er and he looks good to me With his high hat of stars and stripes; His smile is the em-blem of Lib - er - ty, We cres-cen-do Yankee Doodle
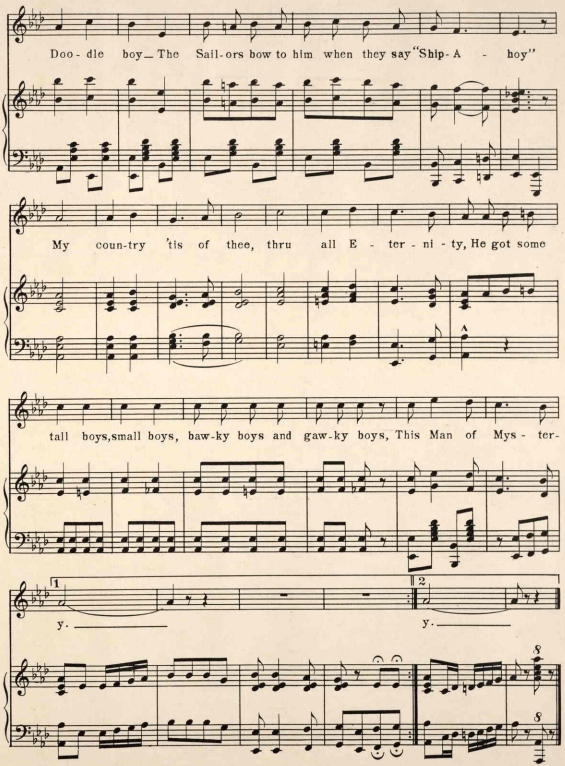
need it in ev - 'ry day life, He's the dear old Yank-ee



Doo - dle boy_ The Sail-ors bow to him when they say "Ship- A - hoy"
My coun-try 'tis of thee, thru all E - ter - ni - ty, He got some tall boys,small boys, baw-ky boys and gaw-ky boys, This Man of Mys - ter-1
y.
2
y.