

© G.E. 153390
JUL 19 1919

Hello Dad We're Back

By
BYRON S. VAN GUNDY

PUBLISHED BY
Delmar Music Co.
CHICAGO

Hello Dad We're Back

BYRON S. VAN GUNDY

INTRO, Marcia

Piano introduction in 2/4 time, marked 'Marcia'. The music features a rhythmic melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand, both in a key of two sharps (D major).

VOICE Animated

1 Hel-lo Dad just list - en a lit - tle bit to 2 Von Hin-den-burg's ar - my made a charge up-on 3 And now we're back to our na - tive land, Home of our

Vamp

Piano vamp in 6/8 time, marked 'Vamp' and 'p'. The music consists of a steady, rhythmic accompaniment for the voice.

me And I'll tell you what we've done o-ver a-cross the sea. You know we went to us Made a charge up - on us with their hel - mets of steel; But us birth, Where Old Glo - ry still waves o'er the gar-denspot on earth With her stars

Piano accompaniment for the first verse, continuing the vamp from the previous section.

fight the Huns a - bout a year a - go And the Kai - ser said us Yanks could Yanks poured vol - leys in - to their ranks, That made them stag - ger that shin - ing bright - er than ev - er be - fore Trusting in God that she waves and shines for Piano accompaniment for the second verse, continuing the vamp.

not e - ven make a show, That our ar - my was noth - ing but a fate, made them stagger and reel. Yes, dad, our bul - lets went thru their hel - mets ev - er - more and more. Yes, dad, we're back from o - ver there,

Piano accompaniment for the third verse, continuing the vamp.

That we entered in - to war en - tirely too late, That they could whip us right in - to them right in - to their "Kup" And you ought to have Where we whipped the Kai - ser, The - fy - rant and the Knave. To the land of the

with the utmost of ease And break thru our ranks like a knife cut - ting cheese.
 seen them turn - ing sum - mer - saults with their toes stick - ing up.
 free and the home of the brave To the land of the free and the home of the brave.

TRICRUS Not too fast

But Dad we whipped them in their forts, And we whipped them in their trenches

p-f

And we cap - tured ev - 'ry cit - y And we took ev - 'ry town And we made the Kai - ser ab - di - cate And give up his crown. But crown

1 2

*The word "Kup" in the verse is German, and signifies the head
 735

465642