When the sepulchres that the hope me in Then
way
To their
Saviour Christ one
In the darkness of the day In the
Of the Jesus with hand
and with the
the only
Jesus
In the morning
Last
in the
May Glory
will you
all
Then

boys who fought for Freedom and democracy. — All the town will be gay. With the Red, White and Blue, and the hands all clasp and play. — There'll be laughter and tears mingled with memories dear guest home coming day

Chorus
When the Yankee coon sailing down the O – cean.

When the Yanks come sailing over the great re- joic-ing there will be, Now the whole town will turn out to greet the boys who fought for Right and Lib-er-

-ty, all the town will be gay with the Red White & Blue, And the band and their favorites will play, There'll be laughter and tears mingled with our cheers on that great home-coming day.
