OCT 20 1917

©CLE412731

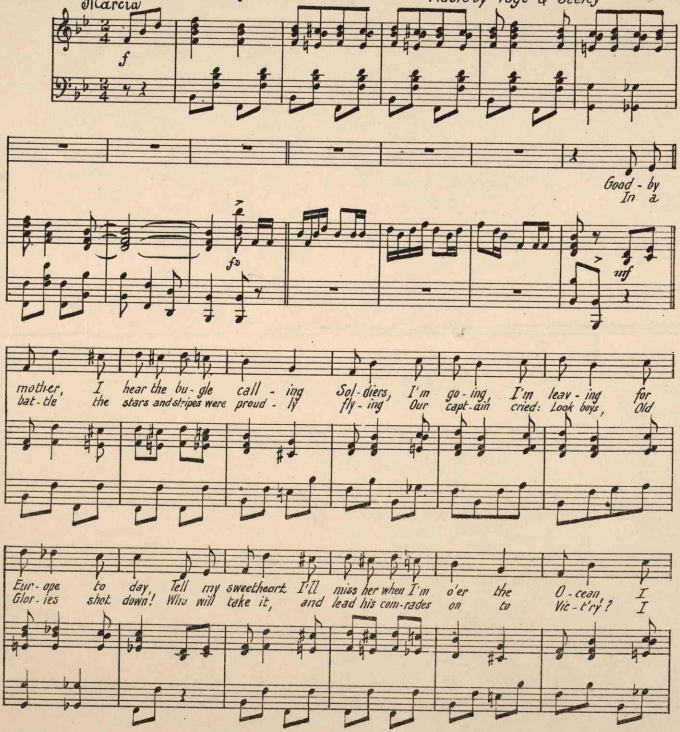
"Will You Meet Me Tonight Beneath Old Glory"

(And Fight For Dear Old France Across The Sea)

PIANO

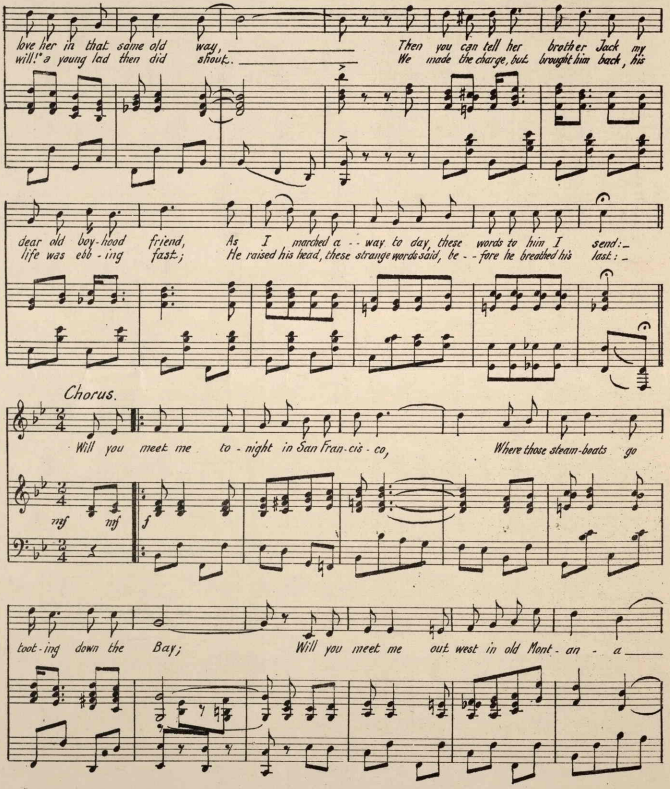
Words by Arlie Seeley.

Music by Vogt & Seeley



Copyright 1917 by Vogt & Seeley.

H1646
.V



love her in that same old way, Then you can tell her brother Jack my will!" a young lad then did shout. We made the charge, but brought him back, his dear old boy-hood friend, As I marched a - way to day, these words to him I send:- life was ebb - ing fast; He raised his head, these strange words said, be - fore he breathed his last:- Chorus.
Will you meet me to - night in San Fran - cis - co, Where those steam-boats go mf mf f toot - ing down the Bay; Will you meet me out west in old Mont - an - a

The gold-en land of yester day? Will you meet me tonight be-neath Old Glo-ry, And fight for dear old France a-cross the sea?
Oh, will you meet me to night with col-ors proud-ly fly-ing, And fight a-gainst old Ger-man-y? Will you I II sfz

417817