"CHEER OLD GLORY"

ON THE BANKS OF THE RHINE

(Spirit Message)

(TUNE:—ANACREON, OR STAR SPANGLED BANNER)

I, Abraham Lincoln apparently dead;
I appreciate old glory, overseas waving.
Wherever you go, and your folds are unspread,
Means justice and peace, and an end to all raving.
Whate'er their belief, if in bondage or grief,
You come quick to them, kindly bringing relief?
Old glory, dear old glory, my all I gave,
That men might be free, and a nation to save.

Your presence means hope, for humanity's sake,
Regardless of caste, color, creed or the the Nation.
Great rejoicing and glee, always follow your wake,
When lives are oppressed, you give to them consolation.
Wherever you be, on the land or the sea;
Exist no condition "Half Slave and half free."
Old glory, dear old glory, victory is thine;
I cheer old glory, on the "Banks of the Rhine."

SPIRIT MESSAGE: The League of Nations will be all right if it has a firm foundation, which is God. If not, it will be all confusion, like the Tower of Babel.

---THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

EXPLANATION: Sept. 13, 1918. General Pershing's Birth Anniversary. The spirit of a man gave me this song poem (sung by Jeanne D'Arc) saying: "Tell General Pershing I will help him win the war. Send this song to the Peace Conference, in France. I desire and wish that they would adopt this as their Peace Terms, in the formation of a 'League of Nation's Song'".
