

©CLE451433

MAY 23 1919

THE BROADWAY YANK

By MARGARET WILDER

M1646
71

PUBLISHED BY Delmar Music Co.
CHICAGO

The Broadway Yank

MARGARET WILDER

Allegretto moderato

mf

Jack - ie James with a shy lit - tle wink met a girl - ie out on old Broadway, Jack - ie James with a quick lit - tle kiss Bid his lit - tle red - haired girl good - day.

p

"Say you've sure got style," from the Em - 'rald Isle?" No Girl Now what "You can bet your boots," we will bring those troops Right home 'cross the would you say? Her lips were red and her hair was too, Her cheeks were ro - sy and her blue sea spray, I'll come back so don't be sad, Just wait at home for your sailor lad, And eyes were blue. "I'm a Yank, sail - or boy, a Yank right tell your Ma and Pa be - side That I am com - ing thru, — If my hair is red, and my eyes are blue.

back, — for my Yan - kee bride, for my Yan - kee bride.

rit.

CHORUS

A Yank, a Yank, I'm a girl of Un - cle Sam, I'm a Yank so true of Old
A Yank, a Yank, I'm a boy of Un - cle Sam, 'Cross the o - cean blue with a

mf

Glo - ry too, My U. S. sail - or man, From a big warship, Hur-rah! Hip!Hip!Wey heart so true, A U. S. Na - vy man, From a big warship, Hur-rah! Hip!Hip!Wey knocked those Ger - mans out, — Slipped a nas - ty pill — To old Kai - ser sourced those U boats out, — With our big guns clean — And a sub - ma -

Bill. Sure we know what we are a - bout, A - bout? We know what we are a - bout.
rine. They will know what we are a - bout, A - bout? They know what we are a - bout.

rit.

460283