

AUG - 8 1918

16

Winn, J.

There's going to be another
Independence Day

M1646

.X

16

Dedicated to our Soldiers and Sailors
 There's going to be another
 INDEPENDENCE DAY

Words and Music by JESSE WINNE

Con spirito

Piano

Voice

There is a day in ev-'ry year we cel-e-brate with joy; A day of pa-tri-ot-ic pride for We've had our fill of Kais-er Bill, of Turk and Aus-trian too; And now the time has come for us to ev-'ry Yan-kee boy. Ju-ly the Fourth, in Sev'n-ty-six, a gal-lant pa-triot band, Pro-show what we can do. We'll win our bat-tles on the sea, we'll win them in the air, We'll claimed the in-de-pen-dence of Am-er-i-ca's fair land. They fought and bled in Free-dom's cause as win them in the trench-es, too, and win them fair and square. There is no need to wor-ry, just brace we are do-ing now; For "Lib-er-ty for all man-kind" We've made a sa-cred vow.

 up and do your bit; Your Un-cle Sam has start-ed in, And he's not going to quit.

rit.

Chorus

Brightly with vigor

There's going to be an - oth - er IN - DE - PEN - DENCE DAY, It's not so far a - way, re - mem - ber what I say The U. S. A. is on the job; we're there to stay To fight and win our bat - tles as of old And when the war is o - ver and the fight - ing's done When we have beat the Hun and made the Kais - er run,

Through out this whole ere - a - tion there will be a cel - e - bra - tion, An - oth - er great and glo - rious IN - DE - PEN - DENCE DAY! There's DAY!

43002