mill. Her wood - en wheels turn nev - er-more A there. Her trem - bling hand now picks a rose One boat lies moor - ing at the shore, With with - ered flow - ers that near by the way - side grows, And plant - ed by her on the seats And rip - pling waves play with the reeds.
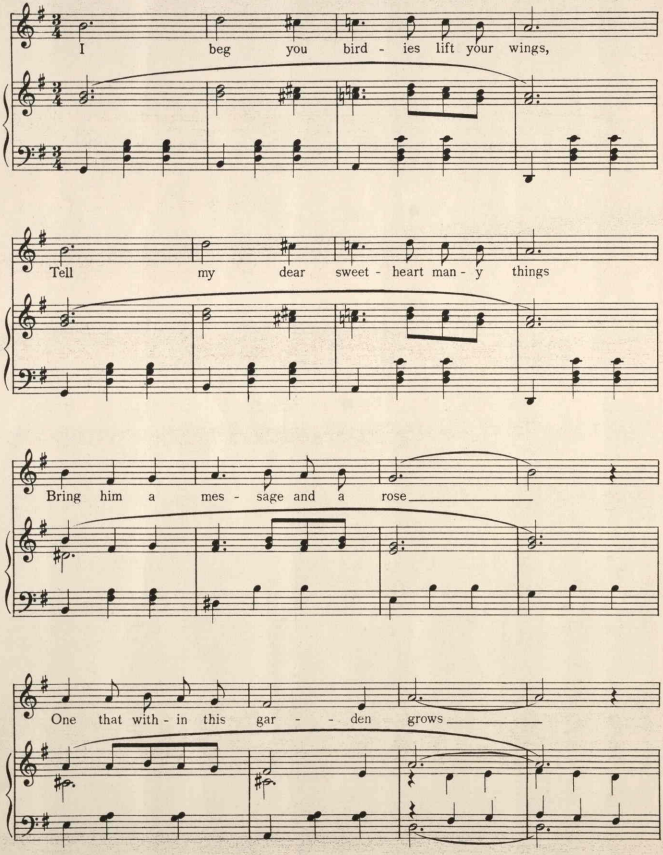
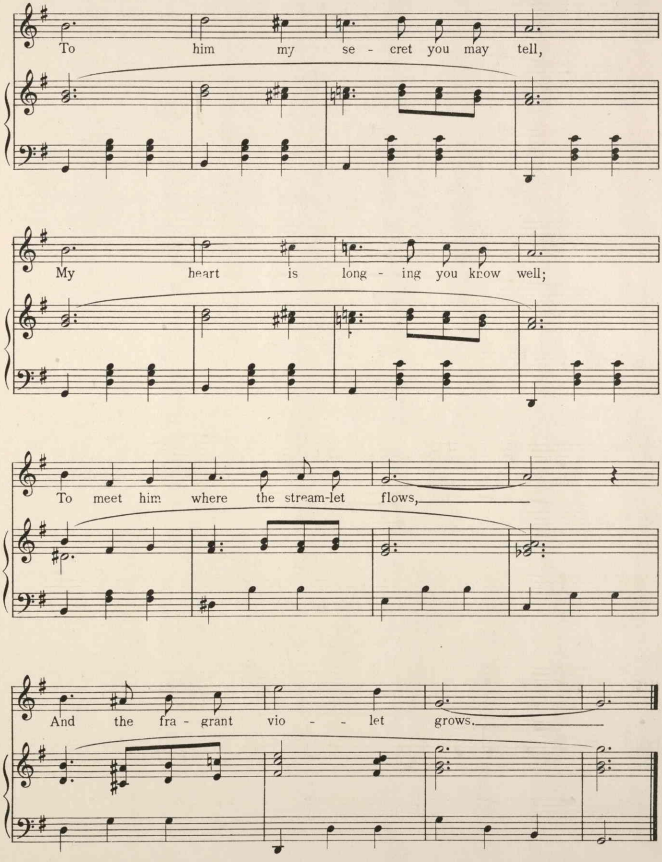
sweet - heart's hand A sol - dier in a for - eign land.



I beg you bird - ies lift your wings,
Tell my dear sweet - heart man - y things
Bring him a mes - sage and a rose
One that with - in this gar - - den grows



To him my se - cret you may tell,
My heart is long - ing you know well;
To meet him where the stream-let flows,
And the fra - grant vio - let grows.
