

FEB 18 1920

ACROSS THE SEA

Song by

Katharine Louise Wright

Arrangements:

Solo — Piano or Orchestra Acc.

Waltz — Piano or Orchestra

March — Piano, Orchestra or Band

Male Quartet

Mixed Quartet

Duet — Soprano & Alto

Trio — Soprano., 1st & 2nd Alto

For sale by all music dealers
or direct from publishers.

S. C. SEXTON & CO.
NEW YORK

(This arrangement may be sung anywhere without fee or license)
Mechanical rights reserved

Across The Sea

MALE QUARTET

Katharine Louise Wright

Moderato con Espressione

mf Like the o - cean's rest - less mur - mur, Like the night wind's gentle
When the storm has spent its fu - ry And the clouds of doubt are

p mf sway, gone; My thoughts are turn - ing ev - er To I know that God's in Heav - en, All's you so far a - way; For the Sun has lost his well with His own; Though the way be long and mf

glo - ry And the flow'rs are not so fair, And drear - y, Still, I my faith can keep And, with

p

Copyright MCMXX by Katharine Louise Wright.

International Copyright Secured.

mf p rit. pp

I am Oh so lone-ly, Since you are o-ver there.
lov'd ones a-round me, I smile though I would weep.

CHORUS

a tempo mp

A - cross the sea, a - cross the sea, My love goes forth, dear heart, to be With you a-lone in p ritard.

mem-o-ry, A - cross the sea, A - cross the sea.

ritard.

(Watch melody closely, as indicated by horizontal bar.)

FAREWELL TO THEE

Words and Music

by

Katharine Louise Wright

Into a life so cold and drear,
Love came to leave his image here;
And mine a heart once strangely free,
Can love but thee, can love but thee.

The end of time I cannot see,
Nor in the stars read destiny:
I only know it cannot be Farewell to thee, farewell to thee.

Copyright, MCMXX, by Katharine Louise Wright
International Copyright Secured.

Arrangements:

Song — Piano or Orchestra

For sale by all music dealers
or direct from publishers.

S. C. SEXTON & CO.
NEW YORK