Chorus (with piano)

Wanting you... Wanting you... I want you, want you... I want you, want you...

Will the old time be the same? All my long... I'll be with you here and there... Hear the call... You see...

AFTER you've heard everyone praise such masterpieces as the well known "Because," "Wait" and "Always," please be skeptical enough to ask your music dealer to play this beautiful song for you. We know you will sing it over and over again and never tire of this unusual melody that will live forever.

HERE is a pretty love song which the title in itself suggests. Thousands will picture this story in their own lives and find joy and happiness to soothe their tired brains while singing "Come to me now when I need you."

WHERE THE RIPPLING WATERS FLOW
DOWN TO THE MILL

Composed by
FREDERICK V. BOWERS

Chorus (Moderately)

I long to see the old mill at the hill... I long to see the bark at in the will... I long to see my mother in the...

I long to see the Miller's daughter... I long to see the mill's wheel... I long to see the mill's water...

A PRETTY ditty of the olden type, with a jingle to its melody that will bring you back to the days when you sat on mother's knee and roamed through the hills and dells without any care or strife.
