

U. S. A. KHAKEI SONG

WORDS BY CHARL ALMAN

MUSIC BY
ROBT. H. BRENNEN

Published by CHARLES E. ALDERMAN
147 Lincoln Ave. Holyoke, Mass.

The Khaki Boys, Of U. S. A.

Words by
CHARL ALMAN

Music by
ROBT. H. BRENNEN

Moderato

Piano introduction in 2/4 time, key of B-flat major. The right hand plays chords and eighth notes, while the left hand plays a steady bass line.

1. Come gath - er once a - gain, boys join in a song to day, And
 2. We come from ev' - ry coun - try from homes a - cross the sea, And we're
 3. Side by side we'll march a - long to the thick - est of the fray, Tho'

Piano accompaniment for the first vocal line, corresponding to the lyrics above.

raise your hearts and voic - es in the cause of U. S. A. She band - ed here to - geth - er in the cause of Lib - er - ty. Where shots and shells are fall - ing we will not turn a - way. Wher

Piano accompaniment for the second vocal line, corresponding to the lyrics above.

does not strive for con - flicts but ev' - ry wrong must right, And Stars and Stripes are way - ing they give a might - y thrill, As e'er Old Glo - ry leads us on land or on the sea, The Piano accompaniment for the third vocal line, corresponding to the lyrics above.

while we wear the kha - ki we'll serve with all our might, kha - ki broth - ers on we'll move to work with all our will.
 kha - ki boys of U. S. A. it's pro - tect or we will be.

CHORUS

We are the kha - ki boys of the good old U. S. A.

Free - dom is our cause, un til our dy - ing day. We will pro - tect our flag on land and on the sea; Hip, hip, hoo - ray for U. S. A. the land of Lib - er - ty.

1111