My Service Flag.

Words and Music by FLORENCE CARLETON BREWER.

Very Broad.

Oh, say can you see up there, by the Red White and Blue Where I've hung my Ser vice Flag

rit

The first star was for Jim mie a sol dier brave and true The There'll be an aw ful del uge with rain drops turned to lead It's next one was for Bob bie a sail or boy in blue There's a going to keep on rain ing 'till ev'ry Hun is dead And strick en one that calls us to a venge a cru el wrong We're when the war is o ver and all the fight ing's through We'll com - ing - Wood - row Wil - son now a hun - dred mil - lion strong love that dear old Ser - vice Flag and dear Old Glo - ry too

CHORUS.

Oh we're build - ing a bridge and that bridge will be so long It will So wave on Ser - vice Flag - by the Red White and Blue Ev - ry reach from dear old Bos - ton right a cross the Atlan - tic Pond And for star that's in your ban - ner means a war - rior brave and true You're the ev - ry lad in ser - vice that has gone to do his part There'll Ar - my you're the Na - vy you're a star - ry ban - ner too And be a star a ser - vice star En - graved in some one's heart So wave I'm pray - ing my sol - dier boy my sail - or boy for you
