THE ELEVENTH OF NOVEMBER

(1918)

(THE DAY OF ALL THE DAYS)

Words by
WILLIAM AUERLIN
Moderato

Respectfully dedicated to Uncle Sam's fighters

Music by
R. B. BREWER.

Musical notation for the piano introduction, consisting of two staves (treble and bass clef). The music is in 2/4 time and begins with a forte (ff) dynamic. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of chords. The piece concludes with a rall marking.

Musical notation for the first verse, including a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in a soprano range, and the piano accompaniment is in a lower register. The lyrics are: "The Kaiser tho't the world to rule, With oth-er Na-tions as his tool; The When o'er the top the boys did go, Midst shot and shell, and pep did show; The When o'er the sea the mes-sage bore, And spread its wings from shore to shore; The". The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords in the right hand.

Musical notation for the second verse, including a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Hun he dreamt, and dreamt in vain, The World to rule with might and main. Old Hun he saw the end was near, And for his throne and land did fear. The Hun his pow-er now is shorn, New Earth and Na-tions are new-born. Old". The piano accompaniment continues with a consistent accompaniment pattern.

Musical notation for the third verse, including a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Un-cle Sam was not pre-pared, But deeds and ef-forts were not spared; He Yanks they fought and death did brave, To give the world for what it craved; For Un-cle Sam was not pre-pared, But deeds and ef-forts were not spared; He". The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords in the right hand.

sent his boys to join the fray, To down the Hun where he would stay.
 Peace and free-dom's come to stay, To fight, the Hun will rue the day.
 sent his boys to join the fray, To down the Hun where he will stay.

CHORUS

Sing first chorus after 3d verse
