MAY 14 1918 ©CLE 42486

"FOR FREEDOM'S SAKE"

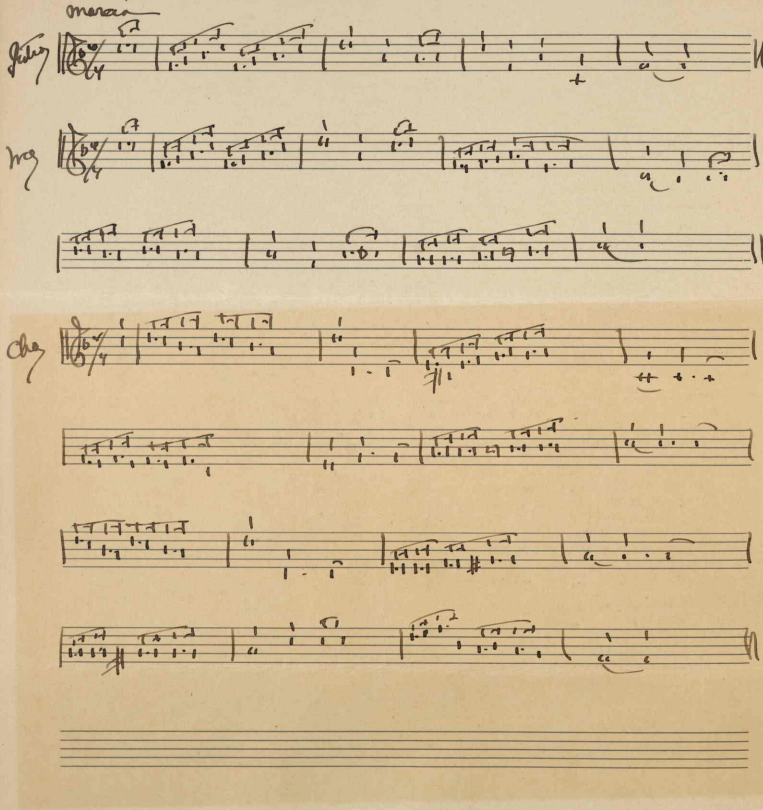
SONG

POEM & COPYRIGHT BY LOIS W. OSBORNE CULVER, ORE.

MUSIC BY

R. A. BROWNE,
780 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

M1646
.B



morendo

"For Freedom's Sake" By Lois W. Osborne

1

When the soldiers march away to aid their country;
When the drums are beating for each soldier lad;
Then your mothers, wives and sisters and yours sweethearts
Will sing these words and make your dear hearts glad:

CHORUS.

For freedom' sake your mothers sent you, laddies;
For freedom's sake your sweethearts said good bye;
They think of you at home and miss you sadly,
And pray that in the battle you'll not die;
For freedom's sake you gave yourselves dear laddies--
For freedom's sake the world would give its all;
And when our glorious country wins its battles--
You'll be glad you went to answer to the call.

2

When the cruel siege of war at last has ended;
And our country's safe,

431711