"Good Bye, America--Hello France!"

Albert T. Duryea.

1

Good bye, America; and Hello, France--shake hands with Uncle Sam!
We have come three thousand miles or more, to lend you a helping hand;
There's ten million more on America's shore, the soon will be across,
And then we'll let old Kaiser Bill, know that Nation will be Boss;

CHORUS.

America! America! the land of the brave and the free;
We'll give the world its liberty and the freedom of the sea;
We'll help the Allied Nations, and we'll give them all we can;
When we return to America, they'll say: "God bless Uncle Sam!"

2

Hello, America! and Good bye, France! -we're going to leave your shores!
May the Allied Nations live in peace, when this war is done and o'er;
If you need a friend, why for us, you just send, and we will be on hand;
So, England, France and Italy, call upon old Uncle Sam!
