APR 18 1919
©CLE450413

"LIBERTY, HONOR, AND FREEDOM AT LAST"

SONG

Poem and © By RUTH ST. JOHN. 415 1/2 S. JEFFERSON St
MEXICO. MO.

MUSIC BY

RECEIVED
APR 18 1919
790 DUPLICATE ORD
NEW YORK CITY

M1656
.13

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 4—12 lines.

Guitar marcia bng clar

"Liberty, Honor, and Freedom At Last" Ruth St. John.

1

Beneath the Stars And Stripes that float abovein glorious folds,
Our Yankee soldiers did their work, as in the days of old,
And now by thousands they are l anding from the deep blue sea;
They're bringing pans of victory--to you and me!

2

In triumph andin glory every other Flag floats, too;
In England, France, and Italy, in Belgium--that is true--
But all the world bows down before our great old Uncle Sam;
Who does 'n t have to lift his hat to any man.

CHORUS.

Listen to the music--isit not sweet?
Victory vibrating in ev'ry drum beat;
Valor and honor shines on each brow;
Glorious-triumphant. America is now!
Baptized in Glory, in Victory and Fire;
Each living soldier we all must admire;
For helping to wrench from the tyrant's grasp,
Liberty and honor and Freedom at last.

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 4—12 lines.

456662