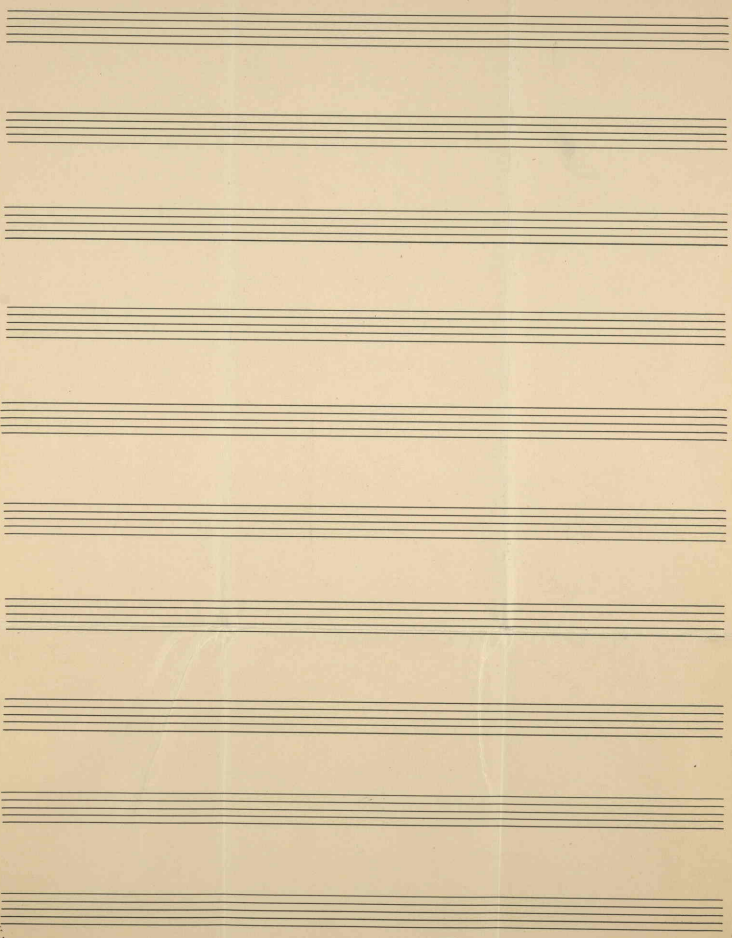
"Make Peace In Berlin" By C.H.Packard.

1

Oh,"On To Berlin!"is the watchword to day;
And drive the beast to its lair the only way;
The cost is too great both in treasure and life;
To go and back up in the midst of the strife;
The world's welfare--that is the stake to be won;
No peace without victory over the Hun!

2

Hold fast there,ye Allies--for help is in sight!
The Yankees are ready to enter the fight;
And Germany's chances are looking forlorn,
The Kaiser he will wish that he'd never been born;
He'll get everything that is coming to him;
When he is hung up on a tree in Berlin.

CHO.


There's Sammy,and Tommy and Jean Poilu;
And the brave sons of Italy.they'll be there--too;
When battles are over and victory's won,
To Belgium,so matchless,must justice be done;
When peace is made in Berlin--when peace is made in Berlin.
