Handwritten musical score for "Sing Me A Lullaby" by L.H. Meine. The score is written on ten staves. The first two staves are marked with "quartz" and "trabze" in the top left. The first staff is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time, with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The second staff is in G major and 4/4 time, with a bass clef and a key signature of one sharp. The remaining staves continue the melody in G major. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and bar lines. There are some handwritten annotations and corrections throughout the score.

"Sing Me A Lullaby" By L.H. Meine.

1

The sun is slowly sinking in far off France, to day;
A soldier boy is calling his mother, far away;
His eyes, once bright and shining, are dim and fading, now;
A mother a pride and darling--her own dear soldier boy!

CHORUS.

Sing me a lullaby! sing me a hush-a-bye!
Cuddle me closer, just for to night--cuddle me closer before it is light--
Kiss me again, dear Mother, for I am growing cold!
Sing a lullaby--a hush-a-bye-- just as of old!

2

A soldier lad is dreaming of home so far away;
The loved ones by the fireside; his mother, old and gray;
Her voice is sweetly singing in gentle tones, and low;
As in his happy childhood, those days of long ago.
