Handwritten musical score for guitar, horn, and clarinet. The score is written in 7/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). The guitar part is on a single staff, the horn part is on a single staff, and the clarinet part is on a single staff. The music consists of several measures of rhythmic patterns and melodic lines, with some notes beamed together and some notes marked with accents or slurs.

"Uncle Sam, The Victor--The Kaiser A Bum" By Walter Everett.

Somewhere in France our gallant boys are fighting;
For future freedom and our flag to save;
We've been insulted by old Bill, the Kaiser--
Who's ten, yes, twenty times a wicked knave.

CHORUS.

With brave rushing to lead our gallant soldier boys,
We'll show the Kaiser where he shall head in;
I promise you that he'll be ready, soon, to squeal--
When our boys make a charge on his old hunnish den.

2

We've got old Bill where he can't win with U boats;
As much as he has boasted what they'd do;
By bringing England down so France would give up;
He'll guess again, that's sure, before he's through.

3

We'll sink his subs, and bring down all his Zepp'lins;
Put his army down and our for years to come;
Then through the world there will be peace--content--
Uncle Sam the victor--and the Kaiser the bum.

This image shows a page of ten blank musical staves. Each staff is composed of five horizontal lines. The staves are arranged vertically down the page. There are some faint marks and a small star-like symbol on the left side of the page, near the bottom staves.
