AUG 12 1918
©CLE 129359

"UNDER OLD GLORY I'LL BE THERE!"

SONG

POEM & COPYRIGHT BY ARCHIE ALLISON - WALDENBURGH, COLO

MUSIC BY

R. A. BROWNE,
New York City

M1646
.B

"Under Old Glory, I'll Be There!"
Aronie Allison.

1

There's a Flag that waves over the brave and true,
It by women's fair hands was first woven;
Shall that cluster of Stars in the sky so deep blue,
Be abused by ganga vile autocratic?
No, by the brave that set us free--we'll drive them from the land and sea!

2

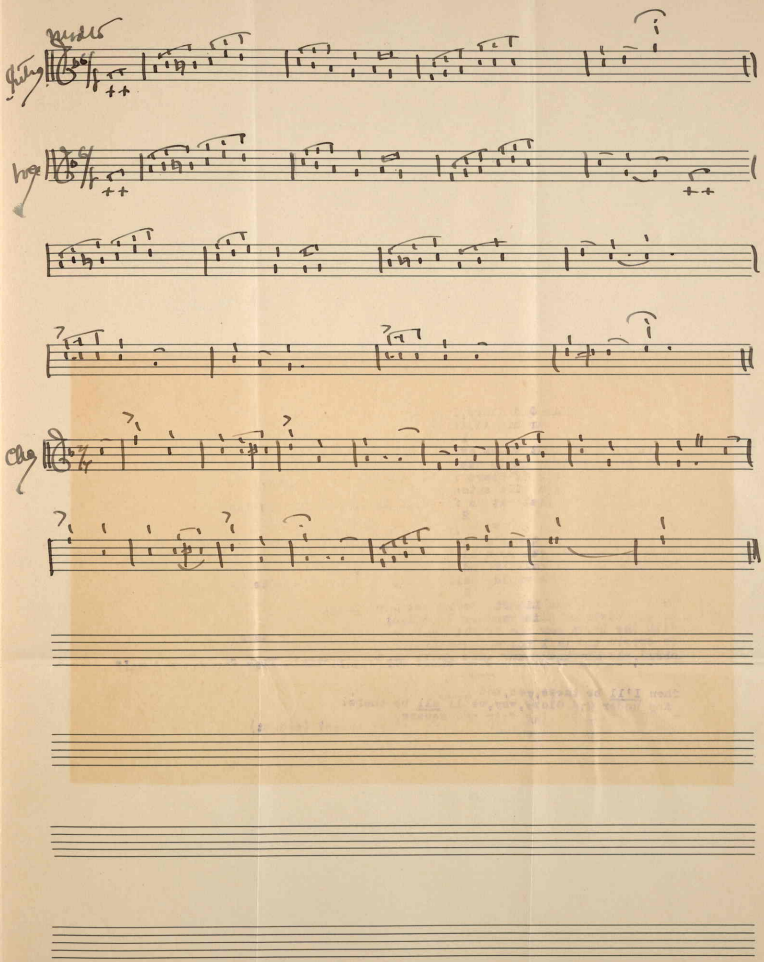
There's a Star in the Flag, yes, for every State;
And whoever shall try e'er to rend it,
With united strength we will co operate,
Millions they'll rally 'round to defend it!
As duties call the world shall see, our fight for righteous Liberty!

3

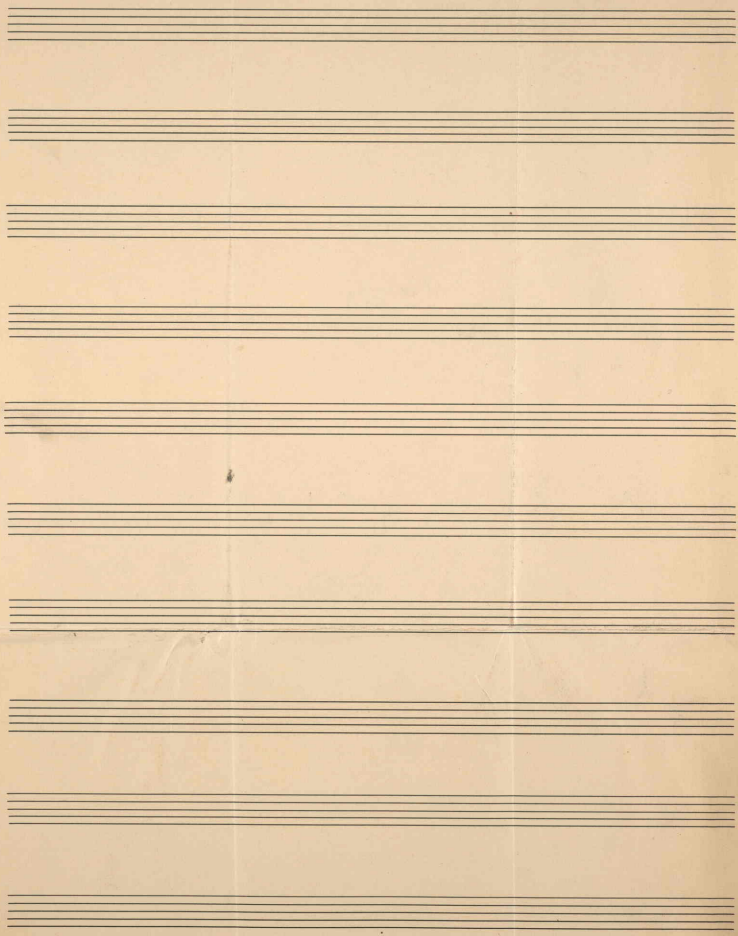
We will honor the Liberty Bell that once rang,
At the birth of this wonderful Nation;
With the brave men who fought and the fair maids who sang,
To create and hail the new creation;
Still, all our toast and song shall be: "Washington's Flag for you and me!"

CHORUS.

Then I'll be there, yes, and You'll be there,
And under Old Glory, why, we'll all be there!
To keep things going fair and square,
Through clouds and sunshine we'll all be there! (repeat)



Guitar
Voice
Clar



43033