"The U.S.A." By Mrs. Ida Keiter.

We are U.S.A. soldiers, that stand up for our land;
We love our Flag--Old Glory--its colors bright and grand;
We're marching to the campground; the place where we belong;
and so a song we're singing--and this words are our song:

CHORUS.

Hooray, hooray, we're marching to day;
Hooray, hooray, we sure are on our way;
our flags are gayly flying and to them we will be true;
Hooray, hooray, for the U.S.A.

2

We're going to show our power; upon that old camp ground;
we only wish the Kaiser would only come around;
He certainly would show him, and thing, yes--two or three;
The Old star Beangled Banner, he'd bow to --yes, sir, see.

3

We are U.S.A. Soldiers, we fight for our dear land;
We're going to win this War for we've got our campaign planned;
We've Generals and money, and lots of good men, too;
We're going out to Berlin, and chase that German crew.
