"U. S. A. Is Good Enough For Me" By Emma Green.

1
 The U. S. A. is good enough for me--that's where I want my home;
 So count me in, for a trip o'er the sea, to help across the foam;
 My good right arm, also my willing heart, are backed by mother dear;
 She has the grit to go and do her part--no matter what--that's clear!

2
 The U. S. A. is good enough for me, for you, too, if you're true!
 But you must now give up your motherland--so far across the sea!
 And stand up for our grand Red, White, and Blue, that stands for Liberty
 Don't turn her down--because she needs you now--be square with her, you see.

CHORUS.

Oh, the U. S. A. is good enough for me!
 Then our Flag that flies none more beautiful can be;
 We Ne'er can forget our Freedom, each day--
 Oh, good enough for me is the U. S. A.!
