

WE ARE READY! BROTHER WOODROW

M1646

.B

We Are Ready, Brother Woodrow!

Music by
R. A. BROWNE.

Arranged and sung by
L. T. HOBBS.

Marcia.

mf

1. Six - foot - six in Old Ken - tuck - y, frames his hands a - bout his mouth; "Are you read - y,
2. From Vir - gin - ia's sun - ny beach - es to the West - ern gold - en sands; From the bay - ous
3. Now, the call is heard by Hoo - sier, and by Suck - er in the hills; By the Bad - ger
4. We are read - y, Broth - er Wood - row, from our der - bies to our shoes; We are sew - ing
5. Old New Hamp - shire takes the sword up, while the old Green Moun - tain Boys, They come tum - bling

mf

Broth - er Buck - eye!" calls a voice from out the South; And a - cross the yel - low riv - er, of the Gulf States, to the fro - zen bor - der lands; When they hear the sil - ver bu - gle, and the Ya - zoo, and its fire the Web - foot thrills; And the Blue Hen and the Ori - ole, on the but - tons, we are fix - ing up the fuse; There's a clean one hun - dred mil - lion to the cit - ies, to con - trib - ute to the noise; To the Gold - en, Sil - ver, Pine - tree, from the foot - hills roll - ing free, Comes the full and ring - ing an - swer, "You can al - ways count on me."

you will see our sol - dier boys Stretch from Maine to Cal - i - for - nia, out thro' Cen - tral Il - li - nois, and the sons of Bil - ly Penn; They are stirred down to their foot - prints by the tramp of march - ing men.
who right back of you will stand, We are read - y, Broth - er Wood - row, to de - fend the Moth - er Land.
and all oth - er States are true; They'll be read - y with their man - hood, when they hear the call from you.

CHORUS.

We are read - y, ev - 'ry son of us, to shoul - der Gran - ther's gun; We are read - y, God for - give us, should we have to shoot the Hun. We are read - y to march for - ward in - to Death's en - gulf - ing jaws; We are read - y to lay down our lives for dear Old Glo - ry's cause.

STANDARD PRINTING CO.
WACO, TEXAS