"We Have Won" By Edward M. V. Doyle 9

1

Our Great Creator He has passed the clouds of darkness from the earth!
Sorrow has gone with it--leaving us Eternal mirth!
Peace and Joy again are here--the soldiers all can say:
The greatest victory the world e'er knew, was won by the U. S. A!"

2

Our God He has been good to us, He helped us drive the foe away!
We now can live in peace, and we need not fear a fray;
They are done forevermore; they sleep on yonder hill;
And each of us no longer breathes the the air that was breathed by Bill.

CHORUS.

We have won! we have won! and we need not go to France!
We have won! we have won! need not take another chance!
We have conquered the Hun, and the work is done, let us play in Freedom's sun
Now we are home to rest! we have won; we have won! we have won!
