"All Hail The Flag Of Liberty" By Harry S. Brown.

1

All hail the Flag of Liberty, wherever it may wave!
The Stars reflect a guiding hand-our U. S. A to save;
When duty calls for heroes all our boys they rally 'round;
And to the tune "America" right ready they are found.
The Stars and Stripes shall lead us, always victors in the fray;
We're always ready and we'll go for our dear U. S. A.

CHORUS.

All hail the Flag of Liberty! Peace smiles from every Star;
It waves just like a beacon light, shines ever from afar;
On land or sea or foreign climes, for liberty it waves so gay;
It is the Dear Old Flag Of Peace-the Flag of the U. S. A.

2

Then rally 'round our dear old Flag, there's Freedom 'neath its waves;
Our boys will always follow it, for it all dangers braves;
There's hearts to cheer and willing hands, whene'er our duty calls;
America, we'll joins the song, until each hero falls;
For we are many millions strong and ev'ry heart is true;
Standby our Flag, and it will stand forever boys by you!
