©CLE331202
SEP 23 1918 RC

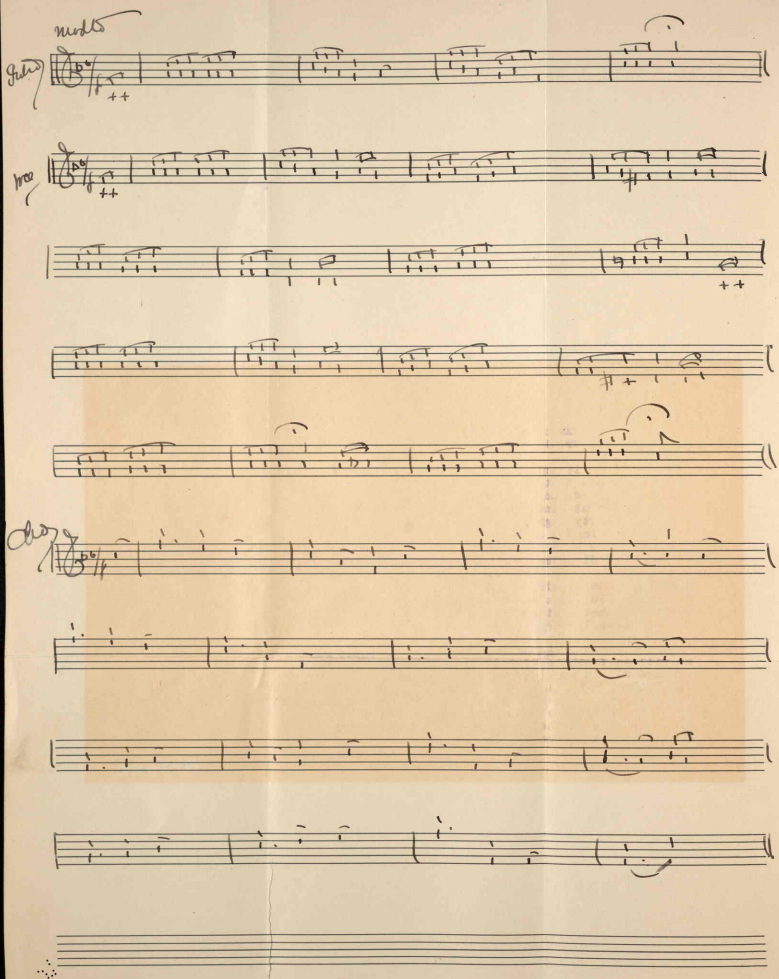
"AMERICA AT WAR"

Poem and Copyright by Mrs. RALPH. FURNESS. 27 WASHINGTON ST. HORNELL. N.Y.

Music by

R. A. BROWNE,
790 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

M1646
B



"America At War"
Mrs. Ralph Furness.

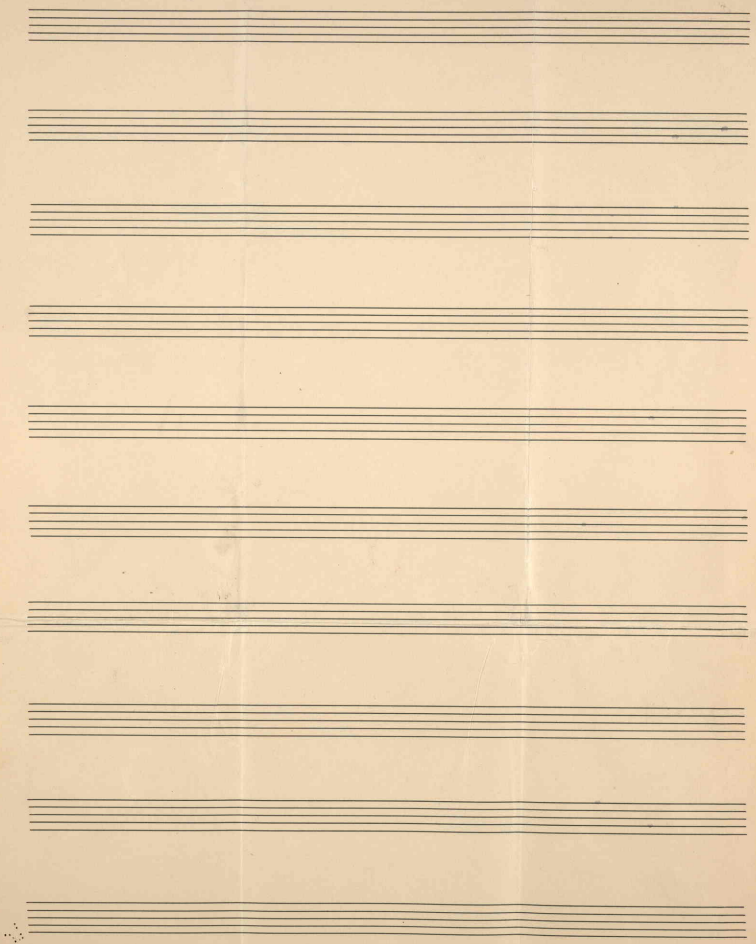
1

All the world it is talking of war nowadays;
And the things that are going on so far away;
Tho at first we did not realize it all,
It is different sinceour boys answered the Call;
They forliberty fight, yes, for you and for me;
And we're doingour share against vile Germany;
Tho they said we'd not fight--had no training at all--
She'll know different when the most of her men fall;

CHORUS.

Hurrah, for America! the land of the free!
Hurrah: for our boys who are over the sea!
They will show what America awakened, can do--
When so proudly they carry the Red, White, and Blue.

2

When the war's at an end and our boys we shall see
We will go forth to meet them as proud as can be;
Because we did our duty over the sea, all
For Liberty for allthe world, you and me!
They'll enjoy a great Peace that our soldiers have won;
May it last for the ages and never be done;
Dear Lord tis to thee that we kneel and wepray:
"Make peace and forever!" for our U.S.A.


DEC 2 1918