We've got fifty thousand ships preparing
And a hundred thousand guns a-gleaming
And five hundred thousand patriots dreaming

So let you

We've got fifty thousand engines churning
And a hundred million shells a-burning
And we've twenty thousand sailors yearning

So hang you

That the race is on the road to freedom
Cuts no figure with your world of greed-dom
When a soldier took off from the earth and

Don't Come to

We're a nation in our might believing
For right that's ever shone deceiving
For a little while upon the dreaming

I'll Come to

Thank you did let the world
Don't know people dreaming
Why your neighbor have you
Conniver deeming

And embattled sky-lit rangers leaving

To let you
