VOICE

Do you hear those bells a - ring-in' Do you hear those folks all sing-in' Do you Cheer up now you dear old mothers And you sis - ters for your brothers Are now know why ev - ry - bo - dy's hap - py, Do you hear those whis - tles blow-in' Do you com - ing home to us and to stay Af - ter man - y weeks of fight - ing Af - ter know where all are go - ing - Go - ing so hap - pi - ly? To - day is the wrongs they have been righting They'll reach the U. S. A. So let us re - day The boys far a - way Are cross - ing the foam For home joice Now that our own boys Are cross - ing the foam For home

CHORUS

They're on their way back To the U. S. A. — Our boys are com-ing home; — It's o-ver, o-ver there And boys from ev-ry-where Are cross-ing the foam For home — They have end-ed the war, And now once more, Peace has been found — So they're on their way — To the U. S. A. —

Our boys are home-ward bound. — They're on their bound.
