Who'll Keep the Glow in Old Glory?

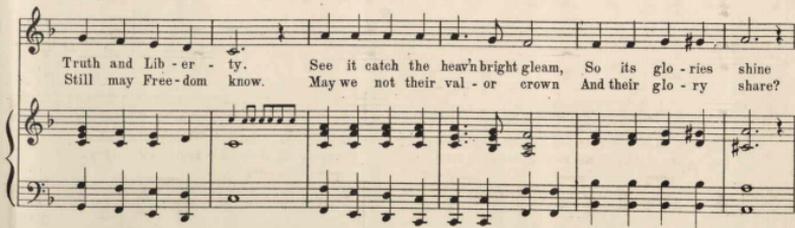

Words and Music by
FRED H. COLE

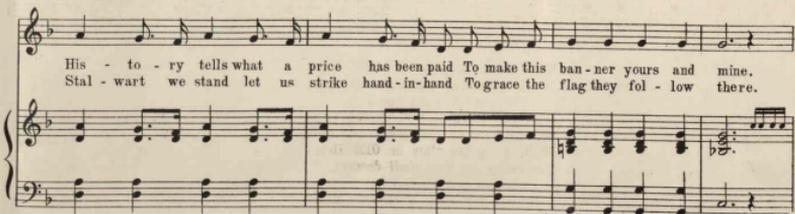

Piano introduction in G major, 4/4 time. The right hand features a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes and chords, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with quarter notes.

See it prond-ly wave on high, Ban-ner of the Free; How it holds with - in its folds,
Hon - or to the sons who dare Forth to face the foe, That our own be - lov - ed land

Truth and Lib - er - ty. See it catch the heav'n bright gleam, So its glo - ries shine
Still may Free - dom know. May we not their val - or crown And their glo - ry share?

His - to - ry tells what a price has been paid To make this ban - ner yours and mine.
Stal - wart we stand let us strike hand - in - hand To grace the flag they fol - low there.

Wholl keep the glow in Old Glo - ry, When dark - ning clouds hov - er nigh?
 Wholl keep the glow in Old Glo - ry? Would you its bright - ness de - ny?
 Bright it must wave For weak and for brave, For those who live no - bly or die. The
 Its field of blue Is call - ing to you A call as the stars from on high.
 sons who have gone forth to bat - tle Are call - ing to me and to you. The

We'll keep the glow in Old Glory
 When darkning clouds hover nigh.
 Bright it must wave
 For weak and for brave,
 For those who live nobly or die.
 We'll keep the glow in Old Glory
 Its lustre no foe shall descry.
 If we cannot fight
 We can give with our might
 The glow of Old Glory to try.
