

FOR YOU AND DEAR OLD UNCLE SAMMY

A SONG WITH A SWING

A SONG YOU CAN SING

WORDS AND MUSIC BY LOU E. COLE
COWBOY POET

FOR BAND AND ORCHESTRA

For You and Dear Old Uncle Sammy

Words and Music by
LOU E. COLE, Cowboy Poet

Marcia

Dear old Flag I've just been think ing, — Why we now all stand by Hear the bu - gles blar - ing loud - ly, — Hear the trem - bling, throb - bing you; — It is thus we hon - or Lin - coln, — And the boys in fa - ded drum; — See the ban - ners wav - ing proud - ly, — As the march - ing le - gions blue; — And we want to see you fly - ing, — O - ver ev - 'ry land and come; — 'Tis the ar - mies of our na - tion, — That will see you yet un - sea, — That the world may see you try - ing, — To plant the seeds of Lib - er - ty. — furl'd, — With the grand - est dem - on - stra - tion, — Bring - ing Peace to all the world. —

Hur-rah! the boys are com- ing strong, They hear your call for men. Hur-rah for Dix- ie's marching song, She'll march to it a - gain! Hur-rah for Old Glo- ry!!

The Flag in song and sto- ry, The Boys in Blue, The Lads in Kha-ki too, Will fight for you and dear old Un- cle Sam - my. my.

LOU E. COLE
COWBOY POET

SONGS	15c	POEMS	5c
My California		A Cowboy's Tribute
America, My Native		To Old Glory
Land		How I Won
Cowboy Land		My Spurs
		The Stampede
		Smoky Jim
		(My Hawse)

The West in Song and Story
515 Pantages Bldg. San Francisco, Cal.