SEP 20 1918
©CLE431140

Colvard, N. E.

HAIL TO AMERICA!

---o---

Dedicated

to

Every true American

of

Whatever Ancestry or Creed

of

Either Sex

and

Especially to

Our Children,

by the Author and Composer.

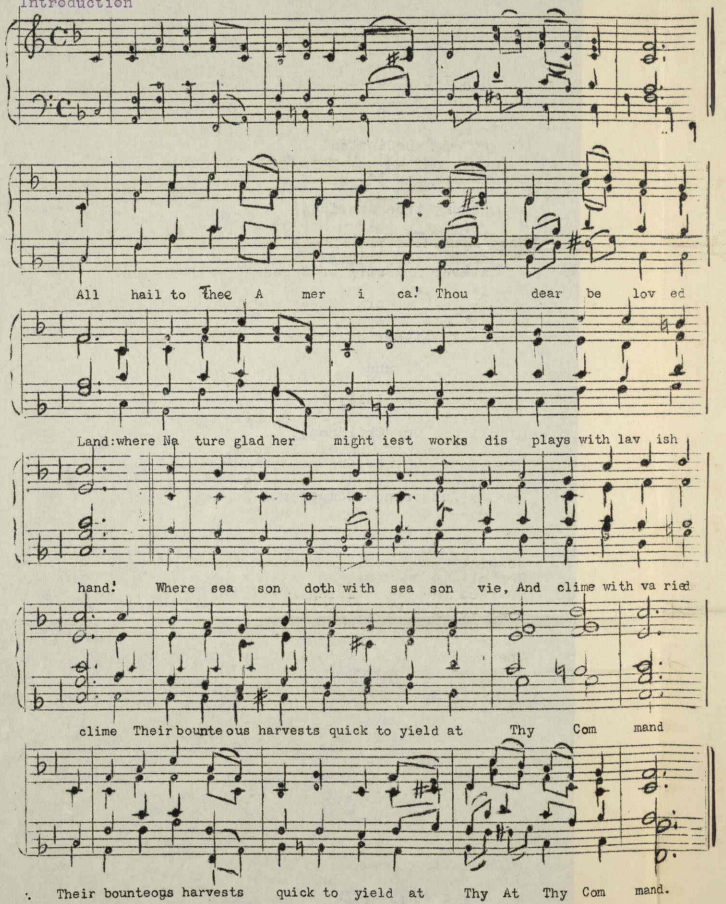
M1646
.C

L.C.Jordan
Introduction

HAIL TO AMERICA

Arr.by W.E.Colverd.



HAIL TO AMERICA!

By L.G.Jordan.

All hail to Thee, America!
Thou dear beloved land,
Where Nature glad, her mightiest works
Displays with lavish hand;
Where season doth with season vie
And clime with varied clime,
Their bounteous harvests quick to yield
At Thy command.
Their bounteous harvests quick to yield
At Thy, at Thy command.

Between the blue Atlantic
And Pacific's golden strand
What mountains rear their snowy heights
Whence flow Thy rivers grand.
How broad Thy prairies stretch their plains!
Thy lakes are mighty seas.
The noblest spot of Earth art Thou
For Freedom's stand.
The noblest spot of Earth art Thou
For Freedom's holy stand.

The first in peace, the first in war,
Immortal Washington!
The first forever in the hearts
Of all his countrymen.
And Lincoln, of the people born,
Revered and blest his name,
Who saved the splendid heritage
Our Fathers won.
Who saved the splendid heritage
Our Fathers nobly won.

No North or South, No East or West,
For all in one combine
To feed the ever living flame
That burns at Freedom's shrine.
Here never priest or king shall dare
An iron will to impose.
The people for the people reign
By right Divine.
The people for the people reign
By right and might Divine.

The glorious Stars and Stripes unfurl!
We'll pledge our faith anew.
Triumphant over land and sea
To freedom ever true.
The emblem fair of human rights,
Of justice man to man,
There never flag shall float above
The Red, the White, the Blue!
There never flag shall float above
Our Red, Our White, Our Blue!

HAIL TO AMERICA!

By L. C. Douden.

All hail to Thee, America!
Thou dear beloved land,
Where Nature glad, her mightiest works
Displays with lavish hand;
Where season doth with season vie
And clime with varied clime,
Their bounteous harvests quick to yield
At Thy command.
Their bounteous harvests quick to yield
At Thy, at Thy command.

Between the blue Atlantic
And Pacific's golden strand
What mountains rear their snowy heights
Where flow Thy rivers grand.
How broad Thy prairies stretch their plains!
Thy lakes are mighty seas.
The noblest spot of Earth art Thou
For Freedom's stand.
The noblest spot of Earth art Thou
For Freedom's holy stand.

The first in peace, the first in war,
Immortal Washington!
The first forever in the hearts
Of all his countrymen.
And Lincoln, of the people born,
Revered and blest his name.
Who saved the splendid heritage
Our Fathers won.
Who saved the splendid heritage
Our Fathers nobly won.

No North or South, No East or West,
For all in one combine
To feed the ever living flame
That burns at Freedom's shrine.
Here never priest or king shall dare
An iron will to impose.
The people for the people reign
By right Divine.
The people for the people reign
By right and might Divine.

The glorious Stars and Stripes unfurl!
We'll pledge our faith anew.
Triumphant over land and sea
To freedom ever true.
The emblem fair of human rights,
Of justice man to man,
There never flag shall float above
The Red, the White, the Blue!
There never flag shall float above
Our Red, Our White, Our Blue!

440224