Valse moderato

mp

The piano introduction is in 3/4 time, marked 'Valse moderato' and 'mp'. It features a simple melody in the right hand and a harmonic accompaniment in the left hand.

One night I lay a think - ing and this vi - sion came to me,
Then in his arms he gent - ly bore the, bleed - ing ones a - way,
Then a host of an - gels' voi - ces seemed to make the heav - ens ring;

The first vocal line is in 3/4 time, marked 'mp'. It begins with a whole note rest, followed by a melody that corresponds to the lyrics. The piano accompaniment continues from the introduction.

— I seemed to be on a bat - tle field in shell torn France one day;
— And the pear - ly gates swung o - pen, and I seemed to hear him say;
— 'Twas like the cho - ir an - gel - ic and this was what they sang:

The second vocal line continues the melody in 3/4 time. The piano accompaniment features chords and moving lines in both hands.

— 'Twas af - ter a hard fought bat - tle ere the smoke had cleared a - way,
— "En - ter in, O faith - ful sol - dier, Like God's own son you gave your life
— "Well done, O brave young sol - diers, You've crossed the rag - ing sea,

The third vocal line concludes the piece in 3/4 time. The piano accompaniment provides a steady harmonic support for the vocal melody.

I seemed to see the Sav-ior clad in glo-ri-ous ar-ray.
 To make men free, to make men free.
 You've giv-en your life for bleed-ing France.

He stooped o'er the dead and dy-ing, And with a voice so
 Now en-ter in you've giv-en your all, you've help
 You died to help make the whole world free, To help
