

The SONG of LIBERTY

Music by

AMY PERMAR DECKER

Words by W. J. PERMAR.

Published by
W. J. PERMAR,
TOLEDO, OHIO.

THE SONG OF LIBERTY

Words by
W. J. PERMAR

Music by
AMY PERMAR DECKER

This coun - try's in an aw - ful strife to keep its hon - or bright. And They'll all come march - ing home some day how proud of them we'll be. We'll ma - ny men of ev - 'ry stripe are called in - to the fight. Our greet each one with Flag and song and say we're glad you're free. The Lib - er - ty must be main - tained no diff - 'rance what the cost. And Kai - ser whipped and all is well, per - haps he's gone to dwell. We

if the Vic - to - ry be gained each one must do his - best, don't care where so he's not here. the Home of Lib er - ty.

rit.

CHORUS

Then send the Sam-mies o'er the sea, to fight for Lib - er - ty, They tra

won't come back, they won't give up, un - til they've seen it thru, They'll fight for home and na - tive land, and all that we love best, So send them grub and feed them well, and they will do the rest.

rit.

