Gentlemen:-

We wish hereby to acknowledge our acceptance of your generous offer of twelve and one-half cents from every copy which you sell of your new song, "Ev'ry Sammy Needs His Smokin' Over There". We feel sure that the attractiveness of the song itself will insure it a wide popularity, and, coupled with a cause to which you dedicate it, it should prove a decidedly substantial contribution to the fund which is bringing endless comfort to the American boys who have made the supreme sacrifice for their country.

With best wishes for the success of the new song, we beg to remain,

Yours very truly,
THE DETROIT FREE PRESS,
