WE'RE MIT YOU.

Mornin Johnny Reb: Salute M'sieu.
Hello, Russ, an howdy-do.
Heard you all was on the job,
Tho't we'd kinda get mixed too.
Sorta do our little do,
(Do our darndest,— me an you)
Can't quite see this Kaiser-thing!
Kinda think we think like you.

2nd Verse.

Kaiser's cooked up quite a stew,-
(His Peoples' some scrappers,- 'tween us ~~Fritz~~)
We carry a flag that'll make him gag-
He's bit off mor'n'ec'n chew Bro't a dollar or so an a ship or two
As well as a bit o' grub for you,-
Mix for work on bread and water,-
Got a smoke to spare on you?

3rd Verse.

3rd v. Our sweethearts bid us a fond adieu
Their kisses were sweeter than mornin dew now that were with you they bid us stay Till th work is done we came to do
The Yankee-doodlers are Yank clear thro our flag is redn white an blue.
Our faiths in God an th Stars tis true
An well waltz to Berlin — or Hell — with you,

Chorus
were with you Trench - mes comrades our nations debt is due
Russia - welcome midst th freemen
Know youll stand to go clear thro
English - Brothers - were united
Just our cause and righteous too
Victory or Death. Oh Allies true,
Our gold, hearts and lands are all with you
