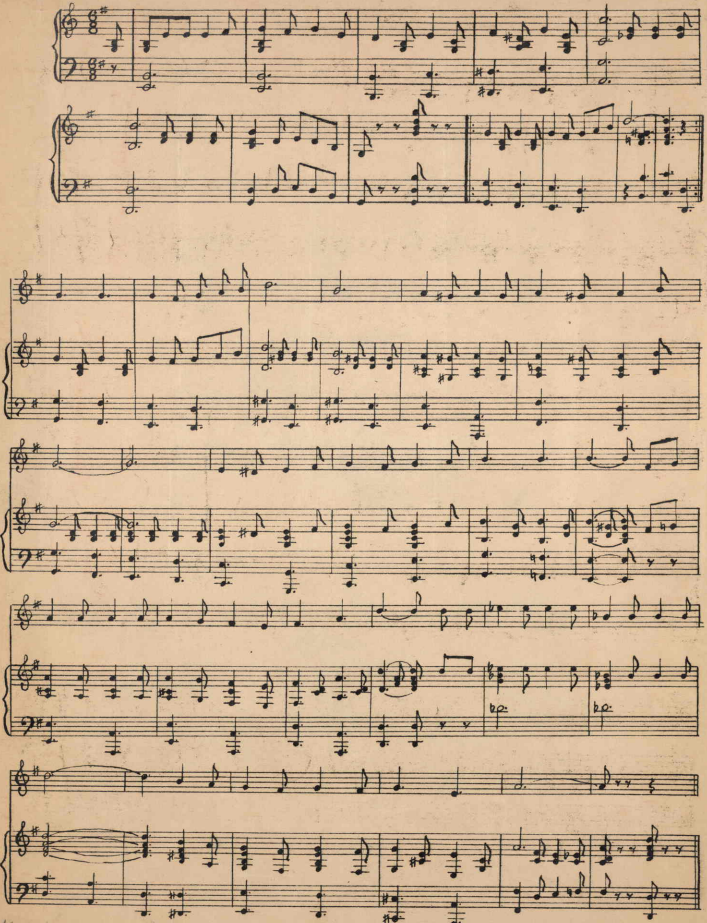
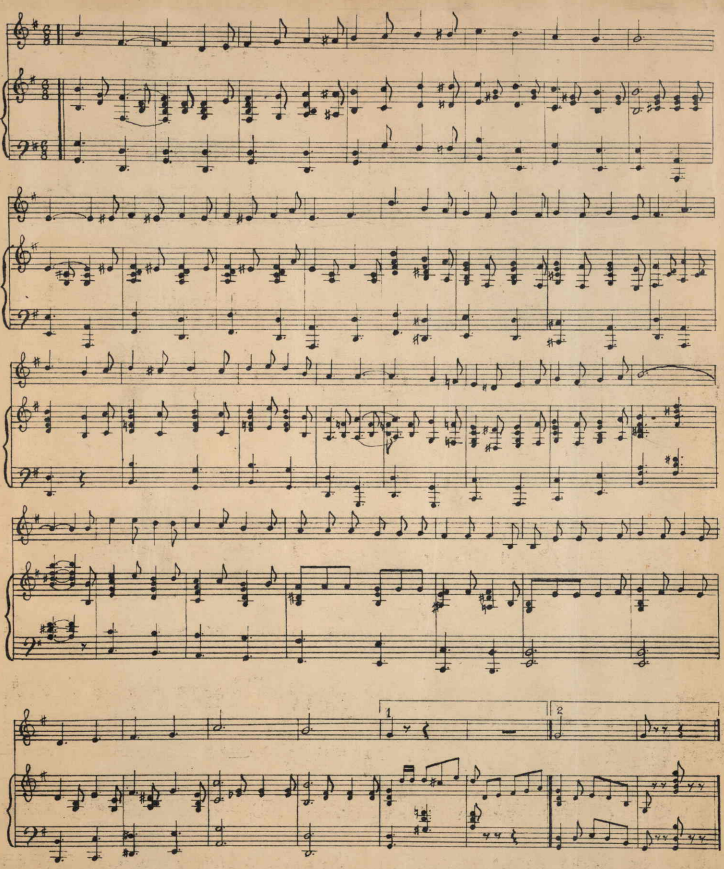
DEC 16 1918 / ©CLE438725

"Back Here"

Words and music by
Edward J. Delehanty



M1646
.D



Copyright 1918 by
Edward J. Delehanty
215 West 105th St.
New York, N. Y.

DEC 16 1918

©CLE438705

DEC 16 1918

"BACK HERE"

Back here everybody is smiling,
Everybody's heart is filled with joy.
All the folks are ready for the happy day,
When the boys come sailing home again
They're on their way,
When you hear a hundred million people cheer,
You will know the Yankee boys are here.

REFRAIN.

Back here we are waiting for a chance
To show the boys in France we love them,
We know that every boy in khaki did his share,
And the boys in Navy blue have brought them over there,
And when they arrive there will be celebrations,
Why the U.S.A. will be a land of cheer,
The chimes will ring, our hearts will sing,
We'll hug 'em and kiss 'em and everything,
When Johnny comes marching home again,
When Pershing brings the boys back here.

Copyright 1918, by

Edward J. Delekanty.

215 West 105th Street,
New York, N.Y.