

OCT 17 1918 ©CNE 433412 ✓
I WONDER WHERE YOU ARE TO-NIGHT.

Words by Mrs. S. C. McCall.
tempo di marcia.

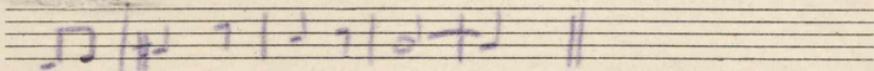

Music by Luther A. Clark.

My heart is ever with you dear; It sailed with you to France somewhere; And in prayers and tears I wonder,

Wonder where you are to-night.

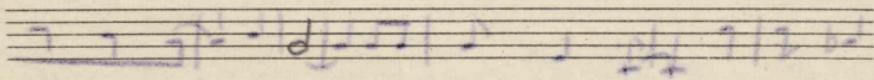

CHORUS.

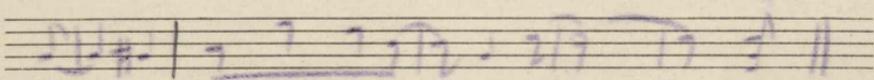

I wonder and oft' times I ponder, If you sometimes think of me; And if prayers and tears can save you dear, you will come back, safe to me. And if prayers and tears can save you dear, You will come back, safe to me.

2.

My heart yearns for your safe return,
back to the dear old home-sweet-home;
And if God but hears my prayers for thee,
He'll bring you safe back to me.

FOR SALE BY THE NATIONAL LITERARY & PUBLISHERS' SERVICE BUREAU, HANNIBAL, MO.

M1646

c

448101