©CLE427841
JUL 29 1918

SUNG BY MR. RAYMOND ELLIS

THERE IS NO HYPHEN IN MY HEART

WORDS BY JOSEPHINE M. FABRICANT

MUSIC BY ARIADNE HOLMES EDWARDS

PRICE 30 CENTS
(NET CASH)

ORCHESTRA ARRANGEMENT

BAND ARRANGEMENT

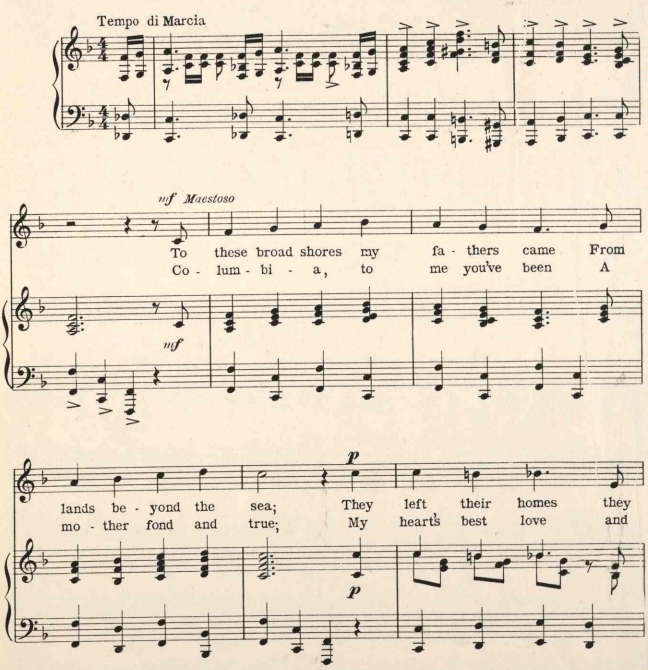
LUCKHARDT & BELDER
10 WEST 45TH ST
NEW YORK

M1646
.E

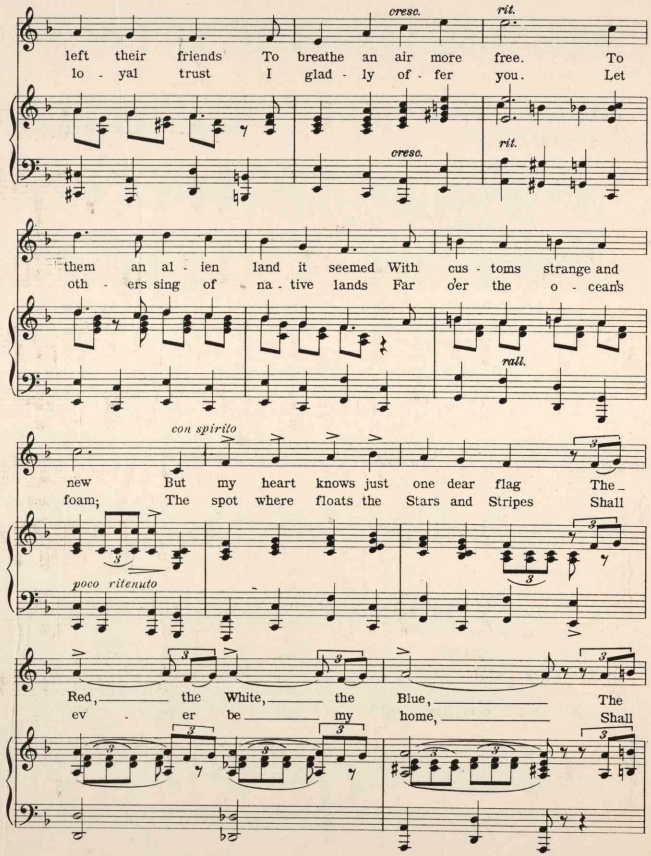
There Is No Hyphen In My Heart

Words by
JOSEPHINE M. FABRICANT

Music by
ARIADNE HOLMES EDWARDS



Copyright 1918 by J.M. Fabricant & A.H. Edwards
International Copyright Secured



cresc.
rit.
left their friends To breathe an air more free. To lo - yal trust I glad - ly of - fer you. Let cresc.
rit.
them an al - ien land it seemed With cus - toms strange and oth - ers sing of na - tive lands Far o'er the o - ceans rall.
con spirito
new But my heart knows just one dear flag The - foam; The spot where floats the Stars and Stripes Shall poco ritenuto
Red, the White, the Blue, The ev - er be my home, Shall

Red, the White, the Blue.
ev - er be my home.
rall.
REFRAIN
There is no hy - phen in my heart; It can't be cut in two O flag of bars and f e marcato
rit.
sil - ver stars, I've giv'n it all to you.
rit.

To My Mother

God bless you my dear

Words and Music by ARIADNE HOLMES EDWARDS.

Copyright MCMXIV by Ariadne Holmes Edwards
International Copyright Secured

456141