There's a he - ro o'er the o - cean, There's an -
When the nights seem long and drear - y, And the oth - er here at home, And she makes each let - ter cheer - y That she tears be - gin to start, Then she reads his let - ters o - ver, And there's sends a - cross the foam, Tho' her lit - tle heart is ach - ing, Still she sun - shine in her heart, For she knows he's think - ing of her, Just as smiles her tears a - way, The whole day long she sings Love's song, And you'll hear her fond - ly say:

in the long a - go, Her heart is there with him some - where, And she wants the world to know:

Chorus

Moderato march tempo

'I'm proud to be the sweet-heart of a sol-dier, Tho' I cried when he marched a - way, For he's do-ing his share with the boys some-where o-ver there, o-ver there in the fray, I trea-sure ev-'ry let-ter that he sends me, And they fill my heart with joy, For he's fight-ing o'er the sea, And I'm might-y proud to be - The sweet-heart of a sol-dier boy!" "I'm boy."

GOOD-BYE, MA! GOOD-BYE, PA!
GOOD-BYE, MULE

LONG BOY

THIS song needs no further introduction; it is now one of the biggest Hits on the market and is also known to our soldier boys in camp as "GOOD-BYE, MA! GOOD-BYE, PA! GOOD-BYE, MULE, WITH YER OLD HEE-HAW!"

ONE DAY IN JUNE

THE Ballad with the new idea by the writers of "They're Wearing 'Em Higher In Hawaii" and "Indiana." This is the number that you hear in all the vaudeville theatres, and we feel certain that it is destined to become the next big hit.

CHIN-CHIN CHINAMAN

HERE is the Newest Composition by the creators of novelty song hits. The lyric fairly bristles with points, and the tune sticks the first time. It is the big noise of the season, and should be on every piano.

(IT'S TIME TO RING AGAIN)

A "REAL" American song written on a subject that appeals to all. Not a WAR SONG but a tribute to the emblem that is sacred to ev'ry true American heart. It has all the ear-marks of a quick and decided success.
