

©DE452159

JUN -9 1919

After The War

By

Mrs. EMMETT ELING

PUBLISHED BY
Delmar Music Co.
CHICAGO

H1606
E

AFTER THE WAR

MRS. EMMETT ELING

Moderato

mf

The cry of war came o-ver the sea to our fair U. S. A., And Oh, joy-ful bells are ring-ing, Peace to earth, now has come, And p

man-y hearts were ach-ing when our sol-diers marched a-way, They our brave boys re-turning bring 'joy to man-y homes; But val-iant-ly fought and man-y fell in that land a-cross the sea, They left their man-y tears are fall-ing where the blue stars turned to gold, Al-tho' the homes man - y gave their lives For our coun - try, for you and me. —

 war is end - ed They will not all come home. —

CHORUS

The world war is end - ed, The vic - tor - y won, Some soldiers sleep in foreign lands, some are re - turning home. All hon - or to our heroes brave - turning home a - gain, All hon - or to the boys who died, vic - tor - y and peace to gain. In hos - pi - tal or on the sea, or fight - ing o - ver there We hope some day to meet them all on the Heaven - ly shores a - gain. — mf allegretto rit.

463305